Hoosiers miss spoiler role

The Halton Hills Firestone Hoosiers competed with a number of the best pee-wee girls softball teams in Ontario June 10-11, in the London Fastball Tournament. Although the Hoosiers failed to reach the playoffs, they acquitted themselves quite well.

Firestone was placed in the Green Division. As such, they played a round-robin with Stratford, Burlington, and Sarnia, to determine who advanced to the finals. Their first game was noon Saturday, against the Stratford team which had eliminated them from the Ontario Playoffs last season.

Halton Hills jumped into an early 2-0 first-inning lead. Stacey Colarossi's leadoff walk was followed by an Andrea Leeking single. A wild pitch moved them into scoring position, where a groundout by Shannon Morris and a single by Tammy Richards each produced a run.

The Hoosiers increased their lead to 4-0 in the next inning. Natalie Cameron led off with a single and Heather Bailey walked. Amy Korzack's grounder was thrown away by the pitcher, trying to get the force at third, which allowed one run to come across. A second run was disallowed when interference was called on the Hoosiers' third base coach. A Colarossi single and another error loaded the bases, and Morris walked to force in the second run of the inning.

After the Hoosiers left the bases loaded in the top of the inning, Stratford finally put a run on the board in the third, on a single after a two-out error. This unearned run was to be their only score.

Halton Hills added two insurance runs in the top of the fourth and final frame. Back-to-back triples by Richards and Sherie Peacock produced one run, and Peacock scored shortly thereafter.

Morris picked up the complete-game victory, allowing five walks and two base hits, while striking out seven. Final score: Hoosiers 6, Stratford 1.

On Sunday, Firestone met Burlington for an 8 a.m. encounter. Burlington drew first blood, scoring two runs on a single, two errors and four walks.

The Hoosiers tied it in the top of the third. Julie Scarlett and Korzack walked to start the inning. One out later, Leeking smacked an RBI single. Morris followed her with an RBI single of her own. The rally died when the Burlington right fielder caught a liner by Peacock. But the score was tied.

Burlington won the game in the bottom of the last inning. Hoosiers got the first batter on a strikeout. However, the second gained base on an error. A walk and two hits later, Burlington had four runs and the victory.

Morris took the loss, allowing five walks and three hits, while striking out 12. Final score: Burlington 6, Hoosiers 2.

Firestone's final game was at 2 p.m. against Sarnia. Since Sarnia had beaten Burlington, a win over Halton Hills would send them to the playoffs instead of Burlington. The Hoosiers could do no better than play the role of "spoilers."

Hoosiers lost the toss and were the visiting team for the third straight time. Leeking worked a base on balls, moved to second on a wild pitch, and scored on Richards' single. An error and a Wendy Graham single loaded the bases, but the Hoosiers couldn't push across any more runs.

Firestone added two more runs in the second. Scarlett and Korzack worked walks off of the Sarnia pitcher. One out later, Leeking smacked a two-RBI single. Sarnia made a pitching change, and closed the door. But the score was 3-0.

Sarnia scored one run in the third, and, going into the bottom of the fifth, it was still 3-1 for the Hoosiers. The leadoff Sarnia batter struck out, but gained first base because of a dropped third strike. The next batter gained base courtesy of an error. Pitcher Richards then got a strikeout, which would have ended the inning except for the errors. Unfortunately, the next batter cashed both runners with a single, to tie the game.

The next batter was hit by a pitch, and Moe Leeking elected to make a pitching change, and went to Morris. An infield hit and a fielder's choice produced the go-ahead run for Sarnia. After a walk, a pickoff attempt by the catcher went wide, glanced off third baseman Colarossi's glove and directly into shortstop Leeking's face. Two more runs scored. A single brought in the final run.
