

Two-car collision

Halton Regional Police have laid charges of making an improper turn following a two-car collision on Guelph Street east of Edward Street, Saturday afternoon. Police say a Hamilton man, 22, travelling westbound in a 1980 Chevrolet turned into the path of a westbound 1984 Chevrolet driven by a 39-year-old Brampton woman, while attempting to move from the passing to the curb lane.

Single-car accident

Police say a 24-year-old Georgetown man abandoned a 1979 Buick in a ditch after losing control of the vehicle on Winston Churchill Boulevard north of Highway 7 in Norval Saturday night. Charges of careless driving and having no insurance were laid in connection with the incident. The Buick was reportedly severely damaged.

Tipped over

Police report a 1988 American Jeep went out of control, spinning 180 degrees and then tipping over on its left side against an embankment on Winston Churchill Boulevard south of Guelph Street in Halton Hills, during the early morning of June 9. Charges of impaired driving were laid in connection with the incident. A 35-year-old Georgetown man was taken to hospital by police where he was treated for minor injuries following the accident.

Vehicle stolen

Police have arrested a 17-year-old Brampton youth in connection with a stolen vehicle taken from outside an Armstrong Avenue house in Georgetown, June 2. Charges of mischief over $1,000, break and entering, theft and willful damage have been laid. A bail hearing was held Monday to determine a court date, police say.

Woman injured

Charges of impaired driving and impaired driving causing bodily harm, were laid in connection with a one-car accident on Sideroad 17 west of the Tenth Line in Halton Hills during the late evening of June 10. Police say the passenger of the moderately damaged 1989 Plymouth was taken by ambulance to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital and treated for major injuries. Hospital officials say the 40-year-old Georgetown woman has since been discharged. A Georgetown man, 41, lost control of the Plymouth while attempting to negotiate a curve. Police say the car flipped over landing on its roof in a ditch on the opposite side of the road. The driver was treated at Georgetown hospital and released hours later.

Girl treated

Charges of going through a red light were laid following the collision of a 1981 Chevrolet and a 1988 Volkswagen at the Guelph Street and Mountainview Road intersection in Georgetown, late Sunday afternoon. Police say a 5-year-old Halton Hills girl, a passenger in the Chevrolet, was treated for minor injuries at Georgetown hospital following the accident. The Volkswagen, driven by a Georgetown man, 35, was severely damaged, police say. The Chevrolet, driven by a 47-year-old Halton Hills man was moderately damaged.

Minor injuries

Police say a 1979 Ford, driven by a 24-year-old Georgetown woman, was demolished as the result of a two-car collision on Delrex Boulevard in Halton Hills last Friday afternoon. The vehicle's two passengers, a 21-year-old and 24-year-old woman, were treated for minor injuries at Georgetown hospital following the incident. The other vehicle involved in the accident, a 1982 Mercury, was moderately damaged. Charges of not giving the right of way were laid, police say.

Guitar stolen

Police say someone stole a Yamaha guitar from Georgetown's Centennial Public School's music room, sometime last Thursday. The room is reportedly open to all students during school hours. The guitar's value was not given.

Window smashed

Someone smashed the window of a Delrex Boulevard variety store in Georgetown causing $300 in damages Saturday night, police say. The store's manager reportedly told police there were a group of youths outside the store before the incident occurred. The manager heard a crash and when he went outside to investigate, he discovered the broken window.

Stereo stolen

Police say three vehicles parked outside a welding shop on the Eighth Line south of Maple Avenue in Georgetown, were broken into sometime this past weekend. Stolen were a $700 AM/FM car stereo from a 1986 Western Star Truck; a $150 CB radio from a 1980 Freightliner Transport Truck; and a $300 CB radio from a 1980 GMC Dump Truck. All the drivers' doors of the three vehicles were forced open, police say.

Tapes stolen

Someone stole a number of identification cards and 10 cassette tapes from a 1988 Ford pick-up parked in the Marilyn Crescent area of Georgetown sometime during the evening of June 15 and early the next morning. Police were unable to say whether or not the vehicle was locked. The stolen property is valued at $100.

Assault charges

Charges of assault have been laid in connection with a domestic situation, occurring early Friday morning. Police say a 28-year-old Georgetown woman punched another Georgetown woman, 31, in the nose, knocking the woman to the ground, after seeing the woman walking with her common law husband. A July 16 court date has been scheduled.

$10,000 damage

Halton Regional Police have laid charges of mischief, break and entering, theft, and willful damage in connection with $10,000 in damages caused to a Georgetown construction site on Armstrong Avenue sometime between May 5 and May 8. Three Georgetown youths, two of whom are 15 years old and one, who is 14, were arrested June 16 in connection with the incident, police say. A September 15 court date has been scheduled. No property reportedly stolen from the site has been recovered.

Motel robbers sought by police

Crime Stoppers of Halton and the Halton Regional Police in Burlington are looking for two men who robbed the desk clerk at the Journey's End Motel in Burlington, at gunpoint. This robbery took place at 12:35 a.m., Wednesday, May 31, 1989.

Two male suspects entered the motel and approached the front desk. One of the suspects asked the female clerk where the phone was. When the clerk directed him towards the pay phone, both suspects quickly went behind the desk. One man produced a handgun and placed it at the head of the clerk, grabbing her arm. The second suspect emptied both cash registers of cash and $100 in wrapped coin. The clerk was pushed against the wall with the gun still to her head. She was then forced to the floor and told to stay there for 10 minutes or she was dead. Both suspects then fled.

Descriptions of the suspects are:

1. Male, black, 18-20 years, 5'6", 140 lbs., slim. Wearing dark sweatshirt, dark navy blue, waist length golf type jacket, dark pants, carrying handgun, black, short curly hair.
2. Male, black, 18-20 years, 5'6", 140 lbs., slim build, possible moustache. Wearing dark sweatshirt, blue jeans and a light colored baseball cap, clean shaven.
