

No-name squirts spring into GBA diamond duty

The newly-drafted Georgetown Baseball Association squirt teams met for the first time June 12. As team uniforms have not yet arrived, the teams remain nameless and will be referred to as Teams I through VII.

Team IV vs I

Good playing by both teams ended up in a tie game. For Team IV, Brian Normore (two RBIs) wacked in a homerun, with Tasha Bradford (two RBIs) hitting a double and a triple. Brent McClung (2), Dan Smith (2) and Richard Desjarlais added RBIs for the team.

Brent McClung and Dan Smith each had a great fly ball catch.

Geoffrey Bahr and Nicholas Johnston each hit a double for Team I. Jesse Viens and Shawn Weatherall each added two RBIs for the team with Mathew Walker adding one. Simon Ford and Nicholas Johnston made a good line drive catch.

Team VI vs II

Team VI worked hard to win the game with Brydon Butterworth, Mark Fedchyshyn and Andrew Nelissen all hitting a homer. Fly ball catches were handled well by Tom Fisher, Erin Hay and Andrew Nelissen. Mark Fedchyshyn and Erin Hay made a good double play catch on the infield.

Paul Dimarco hit a homerun for Team II. Aaron Greer (2), Nils Varga (2) and David Leverette added RBIs for the team. A good fly ball catch was handled by Paul Dimarco.

Team VII vs V

At the Armories diamond, Team V beat Team VII. Batting for Team VII, Matt McMullen hit a homer, Jason Jack a triple and Ryan Gledhill a double. Good catching was made by Adam McDonald and also Chris Baker with a fly ball catch.

Team V won the game with Daniel Harris wacking a homerun and Jason Hayes, Brendan Alexa and Roddy Heinz all hitting doubles. Extra RBIs by Matthew Jones, Brian Foster (2), Justin Hunt (2) and Tyler Pearce added to the score. An outstanding shoestring catch was made by Matthew Jones with Jason Hayes and Brendan Alexa gloving a fly ball catch each.

Team V vs III

Wednesday's games started out with a win for Team III, as they played against Team V. For Team III, Glen Wood batted a homerun (plus a double) and Nathan Martin a triple. Team III's doubles were made by Andrew Peden, Scott Ellis, and Ben Swanson. Good throwing by Keith Coulson added to the game's highlights.

A double was recorded for Mathew Jones for Team V. Jason Campbell made a great high fly ball catch and Justin Hunt caught a hard grounder at second base.

Team I vs VI

Team I lost against Team VI at the Armories diamond. Batting for Team I, Geoff Bahr hit a homerun, Shawn Weatherall a triple and Matthew Walker a double. Simon Ford played good out on the field and Nicholas Johnston made an unassisted out.

For Team VI, Andrew Nelissen slammed three homeruns and Adam Stbyles one. David Zeni-batted a triple. A great fly ball catch was gloved by Kevin Becker. Brydon Butterworth made two unassisted outs at first. Other good fielding was by David Zeni.

First place elusive in GLFFL standings

By LEANNE FOURNIER
Herald Special

First place in the Georgetown Ladies Flag Football League is an elusive crown as no one team retains the title for long. This week finds Lett's Dive, Arnie's Body Shop and Burns Transport on top.

Lett's Dive earned their ranking as last week they defeated JV Jets 18-6. The Jets only score was posted by Kim Beckett. Lett's Dive saw Bev Vickery, Kathleen Lenvey, and Nikki Seifred with six points each.

The second contest of the day proved to be a battle to the death. Burns opened the scoring on a questionable single at the boot of Sandra Cousens. Michelle Hulme found the endzone twice for Burns and Janet Arnold chipped in two singles. Marg Wallinga pulled in two touchdown passes while Julie Fournier grabbed a two-point con-

SBHL update

Last week's first game in the Senior Ball Hockey League ended in a tie when the Kentner's Geoff Parker scored with 1:30 left in the game. Midas Top Guns had held a 2-1 lead up to Parker's goal on the strength of Warren Verge's two goals with assists to Doug Baxter (2) and Mark Maxwell. George Coyle had the Kentner's other goal and helpers went to Don Parker, Dom Vetro and Dale Avery.

The 8 p.m. game saw the McGibbon Hawks roll up a six-goal lead on goals from Paul Allison (one goal, two assists), Brian Beaumont and Paul Martin (one goal, one assist each) and singles to Serge Phillips, Gerry Coffey and Ian Syme. Choice Air's lone goal was scored by Barry Ward from Ed Kouyoumjan.

The last game was a tight-checking one with both goalies making big saves when called upon. Petro Canada took the lead for good in the first period on goals by Phil Alward and Brian Patterson. Assisting were Angelo Spodafara, Ted Rombrough, Paul Gilmore and Phil Alward. Grant Bodnar from Finn Poulstrup scored late in the first for the Trackers but after that the goalies took over, Bob White for Pontiac Trackers and Mark Ashley for Petro Canada to stone the shooters.

vert. Fergs gambled with three plays left in the game. After their second major, Ferg's opted to go for two points and the win but their offence fell short.

Arnie's continues to surprise teams with a carefully planned offence and an aggressive defence. Their defence had another record breaking day with five interceptions: Donna Brown (2), Carol Kovacevic (2), and Andrea Tord (1). Barb Davies, Kelly Cunningham, and Andrea Ford each scored touchdowns while Jodi Jacobs and Carol Kovacevic kicked singles.

Rockwell could only score six points as a result of an interception by Paula Geniole that she returned for a touchdown. Geniole had a fine performance on offence and defence.

Corrigan still continues to struggle in spite of a pumped Corrigan squad. Shelley Harrison scored Corrigan's only touchdown. Avia had little trouble posting 28 points. Avia was happy to have Barb McKeeman as she pulled in eight points. Lorraine Capreol, Sandy Brownridge, and an unidentified player scored six points each. Janet Smith and Rosemary Gale kicked singles to add to Avia's final score.

GAME STARS: Avia's whole team, Janine Larose and Roseann Harrison (C), Kim Beckett (JV), Michelle Hulme (BT), Paula Geniole (R), Andrea Ford (ABS).
