IN MEMORIAM

BOUWMAN: In loving memory of a cherished husband and adored father and grandfather, John Bouwman, who left us on June 19, 1988.

You suffered too much, your pleasures few, You never deserved what you went through, You stood the test and stood it well, Just what you suffered You would never tell, Now resting where no shadows fall, In peaceful sleep you await us all, Time will link the broken chain, When one by one we meet again.

Deeply missed and forever loved and remembered by wife Ariene, daughters Karen and Kathy, and grandchildren Sean and Karlene.

PELLIN - In loving memory of the deceased members of the late Giovanni and Stella Pellin. We often think of days gone by, When we were all together, A shadow o'er our lives has cast, Our loved one's gone forever. Always remembered by Daria and Elena.

IN MEMORIAM

THOMPSON, Harold (Hack). June 24, 1988.

I feel you with me every day, Watching, caring all the way. You made my life so special, What else is there to say.

It hurt so much to say good-bye, The reason, God only knows why, I know it has to be this way, Until we meet again in heavens' sky.

The days are lonely, oftensad, Some are good, and some are bad, My greatest comfort from it all is to have known and called you Dad.

Only God and you know how I miss you. Love your daughter Barbara, Grandchildren Chris, Norm, Steve and Matt.
