CIRCULATION CAREER OPPORTUNITY
We are looking for an individual who is very much interested in what they will be doing in five years time. The person we are looking for is much more interested in a rewarding career than simply just a job, and is willing to work towards a career.
To the right individual, we offer a complete and comprehensive training program in all aspects of circulation work in a daily newspaper. The person selected will work in our circulation department directly with the circulation manager. The person will be trained in circulation sales work, carrier recruitment and training, newspaper distribution and circulation office procedures.
This person will enjoy working with youngsters of newspaper carrier age, and also will enjoy meeting and dealing with the public. There is a certain amount of evening work involved and it is necessary to work some Saturdays. A valid driver's license is necessary, as is a late model automobile.
This position offers a secure future, with good starting salary, merit increase based on performance, plus additional company benefits. The objective of this individual would be that of circulation management and the progress made will depend entirely upon the individual's own initiative and enthusiasm in circulation work.
To arrange an interview, please reply in writing only telling us about yourself. All replies will be held in the strictest confidence.
