

Assault charges

Halton Regional Police have laid charges of assault following a fist-fight at a Confederation Street home in Glen Williams Friday night. A 32-year-old Glen Williams man called police to remove an "unwanted person" from his residence. When police arrived at the scene, the suspect, a Brampton man, 30, punched the complainant. No injuries were reported. A July 24 court date has been scheduled in connection with the incident.

Liquor stolen

Police say someone stole $150 in cash and various types of liquor from a house in the Lot 23 and Concession 8 area of Halton Hills sometime Thursday. Entry to the house was gained by removing the screen from a rear window, police say.

Bottles thrown

Two hundred dollars in damages was caused to an upstairs window of a house located in the Weber Drive area of Georgetown when someone threw a beer bottle through the window Friday night, police say. Another beer bottle was thrown through a kitchen window of a Mill Street home sometime between the evening of June 23 and early the next morning, police report. Reported damage is valued at $65.

Glass smashed

Police say someone smashed the glass on the front of a propane tank located at a Guelph Street gas bar in Georgetown, sometime during the early evening of June 23 and early the next morning. The damage is estimated to be $200.

Windshield broken

The windshield of a 1988 Pontiac, valued at $200, was smashed while the vehicle was parked in the Lot 24 and Concession 9 area of Halton Hills overnight June 24. Police say the vehicle's owner parked the car on the street because the person's driveway was flooded.

Man injured

A 33-year-old California man was taken by ambulance to the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital where he received three stitches to his head following an industrial accident at Malcolm Black Equipment on Mountainview Road North early Friday afternoon, police say. The man was reportedly standing on a step-ladder attempting to install a large metal pin into a boom hinge when he lost his balance letting go of the pin which subsequently hit him in the head.

Charges laid

Police have laid charges of assault following a dispute between two men concerning each other's driving habits, outside a Guelph Street variety store the night of June 20. The victim, a 17-year-old Georgetown man, reportedly drove past a car belonging to the suspect, a Georgetown man, 41, on Guelph Street, at which time the suspect followed the victim to the variety store. The suspect then allegedly pushed the victim to the ground. And when the victim tried to get up the suspect reportedly hit him in the face.

Car stolen

Police say someone stole a 1979 Chevrolet valued at $1,000 from an auto parts compound located in the Lot 6 and Concession 6 area of Halton Hills sometime between the evening of June 24 and early the next morning. The keys were reportedly in the vehicle at the time it was stolen.

No injuries

Halton Regional Police have laid charges of careless driving in connection with an accident on the First Line, 300 metres north of Sideroad 22, during the early morning of June 22. Police say a Caledon man, 58, was driving southbound in a 1973 Dodge when the vehicle went out of control, at which time the car landed in a water-filled ditch. No injuries were reported and the Dodge was moderately damaged.

Severe damage

No one was injured following an accident in which a Buick, driven by a 24-year-old Georgetown man, went out of control, then subsequently went off into a ditch along Winston Churchill Boulevard, two kilometres north of Highway 7 in Halton Hills, June 17, police say. The vehicle's driver reportedly left the scene after the accident. Police have laid charges of careless driving, not using seat belts and driving without insurance in connection with the incident. The Buick was severely damaged, police say.

Minor injuries

Police say three passengers of a 1988 Subaru were taken by ambulance to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital and treated for minor injuries following a one-car collision on the Third Line at Sideroad 15 during the early afternoon of June 19. Those injured were a 16-year-old Moffat boy, and a Milton girl and boy each aged 14. Police say the vehicle's driver, a Milton man, 17, swerved to avoid hitting a black dog. The car mounted a grassy embankment on the west side of the road, then hit a fence post, rolling over and landing on the roadway, roof side down.

Two-car collision

Charges of failing to stop were laid following a two-car collision on Winston Churchill Boulevard and Sideroad 5 in Halton Hills during the early afternoon of June 21. Police say a 1979 Plymouth driven by a Brampton man, 35, was westbound on Sideroad 5 when it collided with a 1980 Toyota, driven by a 23-year-old Milton woman. The Toyota was demolished. The Milton woman received minor injuries but was not taken to hospital.

Charges laid

Charges of careless driving were laid following a single vehicle accident on the Ninth Line half a kilometre south of Sideroad 32 in Halton Hills during the afternoon of June 18. Police say an Erin woman, 19, driving southbound in a 1984 Buick, which hit a tree after the vehicle went out of control when swerving. Police say an unknown car was travelling northbound on the same road. The Buick was severely damaged, police say. No injuries were reported.

Bike-car collision

A 19-year-old Georgetown man riding a 10-speed bicycle struck a 1981 Pontiac, driven by a Georgetown man, 37, at the intersection of the Eighth Line and Sideroad 10, in Halton Hills Saturday afternoon. Police say the bicycle rider collided with the Pontiac's right rear door when the car, travelling southbound, left the intersection stop sign. No injuries were reported. Charges of failing to stop were laid in connection with the incident.

Cars collide

Charges of careless driving were laid in connection with a two-car collision at the intersection of Main Street and Church Street in Halton Hills early Saturday afternoon. Police say a 1982 Honda, driven by a 25-year-old Norwood man, was struck from behind by a 1985 Chevrolet driven by an Acton man, 29, while waiting to turn left on to Church Street.

Car damaged

Police say an Erin man, 54, driving a 1988 International struck a parked 1988 Mercury while leaving a Queen Street East parking lot in Acton, Friday afternoon. The man reportedly made too sharp of a turn leaving the lot, and the right front wheel of the attached trailer struck the Mercury. A charge of failure to surrender trailer ownership was laid following the incident.

Assault on pregnant Georgetown woman

Two youthful offenders are wanted in Georgetown for the assault of a pregnant woman and the theft of her purse.

On Monday, May 15, 1989 at 7 p.m., a young woman was walking toward the stores on the east end of Georgetown Market on Guelph Street when she was approached from the rear by two males on BMX bicycles. She was suddenly pushed from the rear and fell to the ground injuring her knees while at the same time her purse was grabbed from her shoulder. The two youths continued on their bikes to the rear of the plaza where the purse was later located minus the cash it had contained.

The suspects are described as male, white, 16-17 years of age. One has dark shoulder length hair. Both wearing faded blue jean jackets with rock group insignia on the back, one of which is believed to be "ZZ-TOP".
