Legion mourns fallen comrade

Legion Lines

J.T. Hayes
Branch 120 PRO

The Branch mourns the passing of our Comrade George Chaplin. A Legion member since 1948, George served with the Lorne Scots during World War 2. Our deepest sympathy is with his family and friends at this time.

The men's fun day golf invitational tournament will be held on Sunday, Aug. 6. There are some invitations still waiting to be picked up at the bar, if you are unable to attend this year please respond as soon as possible.

Branch 120, under the direction of 'Sgt.-at-Arms Ernie Peasey participated in the Canada Day Parade in Glen Williams on July 1. This ever popular annual event is a tribute to the dedication and hard work of the citizens of the Glen, and their community pride.

Chamber heads to the SkyDome

The Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce will be joining other chambers from Southern Ontario for a Blue Jays game at the SkyDome in Toronto. Over 2,000 chamber members will be in attendance representing chambers of commerce from both large and small communities in our area.

The date of the game is Sept. 15. The Jays will host the Cleveland Indians. Cost for the tickets including coach transportation from Georgetown is $20.

The Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce has a number of tickets available for the game. If you have not been to the Dome why not join your fellow business people Sept. 15 by calling 877-7119.
