Hamilton steals show

By LEANNE FOURNIER
Herald Special

In ladies flag football action, Brenda Hamilton of Burns Bullfrogs singlehandedly dismantled Lett's Dive's offence and defence with a 20-14 victory. Ferg's Flicks and Avia battled to their second tie this season. Corrigan defeated Rockwell 12-6 while Arnie's Body Shop chalked up two points with a JV default.

Brenda Hamilton scored one touchdown in the first and two interceptions while Patti Waters had one interception and Nikki Siefried had a TD for Lett's Dive. In the third quarter, Hamilton ran for a second TD while Lett's Dive pulled ahead with a Kathleen Lenvey TD reception and a two point convert by Siefried. With only three minutes left in the final quarter, Jennifer Reynolds threw a strike to Brenda Hamilton. Sandra Cousens cushioned the victory with a two point convert.

Avia played a tough game with a 20-20 score against Ferg's. Julie

Fournier picked up six points for Ferg's while Avia pulled ahead with TDs to Sandy Brownridge and Jenny Smith. Carole Johnson booted the single. Ferg's offence proved potent as Nancy Hamilton scored six and Marg Walinga converted two.

Noreen Atkinson found open ground to pull Ferg's further ahead. With one play left in the game, Lisa Allen's target Jenny Smith came through with a reception. A missed single ended the game in a tie.

Michele Keess had a typical day on the gridiron with a 12 point day for Corrigan. Jeanine Larusso and Roseann Harrison snuffed Rockwell's hopes of a victory with interceptions. Lisa Tancoo was sorely missed in previous weeks by her Rockwell teammates as she scored six points and pulled in an interception.
