

Police Beat

Panel stolen

Halton Regional Police say someone stole $100 worth of diffusion panel overhead lighting from an unlocked Arthur Street garage in Acton sometime between July 26 and July 30.

Strong-box stolen

A strong-box containing approximately $215 was stolen from the office of Leferink Disposals on Armstrong Avenue in Georgetown during office hours Saturday afternoon, police say.

Drove off

Police report someone stole $38 worth of gas from the Guelph Street Canadian Tire Gas Bar in Georgetown early Saturday morning. The driver reportedly filled the two-door vehicle with gas and then "took off." Police say there were no licence plates on the car.

Aerial broken

Someone broke off the aerial of a 1987 Acura parked outside a Pennington Crescent home in Georgetown early Sunday morning, police say. Damages were estimated at $50.

Shingles stolen

Police say someone stole the first layer of roof shingles valued at $200 from a garden shed located in the backyard of a Greystone Crescent home in Georgetown overnight July 27 or 28.

$700 damage

Approximately $700 in damages resulted after someone smashed a hole in the front window of a Delrex Boulevard variety store early Sunday morning. Police have no suspects at this time.

Mischief charges

Police have laid charges of mischief after a Centennial Public School window was smashed Friday night. A 14-year-old Georgetown youth is scheduled to appear in court Aug. 18 in connection with the incident. Estimated damages were unavailable.

$500 damage

Police say someone caused $500 damage after smashing mail boxes in the rural area of the Fifth Line and Sideroad 10 in Georgetown sometime between the evening of July 29 and the next morning. Police have no suspects.

Motor stolen

A Mercury outboard motor valued at $1,300 was stolen from a shed in the rear of a residence in the area of the First Line near Breezes Campground sometime between the evening of July 24 and the next day, police say.

Assault charges

A 21-year-old Georgetown man allegedly kicked the face and upper body of a relative at a Georgetown residence Sunday night. The victim was a 64-year-old Georgetown man. The man wasn't taken to hospital, police say. Charges of assault were laid in connection with the incident. An Aug. 28 court date has been scheduled.

Saw stolen

Police say someone stole a saw, some cast iron drains, and broke a shed window at a construction site on Hall Road in Georgetown sometime between the afternoon of July 21 and the morning of July 23. The stolen and damaged property was estimated at $950. The premises was guarded by security people at the time of the incident but nothing was seen, police say.

Minor injuries

A 64-year-old Georgetown man was taken by ambulance to Georgetown hospital and treated for minor injuries after the 1978 Mercury he was driving, left Trafalgar Road south of Sideroad 10, Thursday afternoon. Police say the Mercury went out of control when the car's front right tire slipped off the road. The man over-corrected and the car ran off the road, first smashing into a speed limit sign and then into a telephone pole. The Mercury was completely demolished.

Four-car collision

Charges of careless driving were laid in connection with a four-car collision on Main Street North in Acton last Thursday afternoon. Police say a chain reaction was set off when a 1988 Chevrolet, driven by a 21-year-old Toronto man, ran into a 1982 Mazda, after the Chevrolet's brakes locked. The Mazda, which was driven by a 27-year-old Guelph man, was stopped for traffic ahead. It was pushed in to the back end of a 1979 Oldsmobile, driven by a 35-year-old Acton woman. The Oldsmobile then collided with a 1982 Toyota, driven by a 20-year-old Acton man. There were no injuries, police say. And all four vehicles were lightly damaged.

Boy injured

A 15-year-old Georgetown boy was taken by ambulance to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital following a two-vehicle collision at the intersection of Main Street and Mill Street in Acton, during the afternoon of July 22, police say. The boy was riding a bicycle eastbound on Mill Street when he passed a vehicle on the right and collided with a 1986 Pontiac. A 26-year-old Acton woman was driving the Pontiac southbound on Main Street at the time of the accident.

Two-car collision

Police have laid charges of failure to stop following a two-car collision on the Ninth Line at Sideroad 5 in Halton Hills Saturday morning. A Honda travelling southbound along the Ninth Line was struck by a 1987 Ford. The Honda slid into a ditch at the southwest corner of the intersection and came to a stop. The Ford was being driven westbound by a 26-year-old Brampton man.

Car demolished

A 1982 Pontiac was demolished following a single-car collision on Trafalgar Road south of Sideroad 15 in Halton Hills early last Wednesday morning. Police say a 30-year-old Georgetown woman was travelling northbound when the vehicle went out of control on the road's gravel shoulder. The car drove over the shoulder, hit a ditch and rolled over. The driver left the vehicle and police later located the woman at her residence. Charges of careless driving and failure to remain at the scene were laid in connection with the incident.

Charges laid

Police have laid charges of making an improper lane change following a two-car collision on Main Street North south of Moore Park Crescent in Georgetown last Wednesday evening. To avoid a vehicle waiting to turn in to Moore Park Plaza, a 23-year-old Brampton man, driving a 1977 Ford, moved into the curb lane, but struck a 1988 Chevrolet. A 54-year-old Marmora man was driving the Chevrolet.

CRIME STOPPERS

OF HALTON

Police investigate vicious assaults in Milton

Halton police in Milton are presently investigating two vicious assaults that occurred in Rotary Park during the month of July. Both victims had been drinking and had difficulty defending themselves at the time of the assaults.

The first incident took place on Monday, July 3. At 8 p.m. the 70-year-old male victim was found laying in the bushes at the west end of the park, suffering from head wounds. He had been struck over the head at least twice with a blunt instrument. The suspect is described as male, white, approximately 28 years old, blond short hair, clean shaven, narrow face, 5'8", 130 lbs., possibly had tattoos of hearts on one arm, wearing sunglasses, dark shirt and blue or grey trousers.

The second assault took place sometime prior to 2 a.m. on July 5. The male victim, age 40, was walking through Rotary Park, in the area of Mill Pond. He came across four male youths. Words were exchanged and the youths attacked him. The victim was knocked to the ground and repeatedly kicked.

He suffered a broken jaw and numerous bruises to the head, arms, back and legs.

The suspects were last seen running behind the pool in Rotary Park.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1,000 for information that leads to an arrest in these cases or any other cases. Callers are not required to reveal their identities or to testify in court. The Crime Stoppers toll free number is 1-800-668-5151.
