SKIN DIVING SIGNALS

Underwater sports are perfectly safe, if common sense is practiced. They can also be a lot of fun! Try to correctly match the skin diving commands and signals.

- 1. "I am having trouble with my air."
- 2. "What time is it?"
- 3. "Hold everything."
- 4. "I am having trouble with my ears."
- 5. "OK."
- 6. "Let's go up."
- 7. "Pick me up."

ALFIE GOES BOATING

It is important to practice safety when boating. Alfie Alligator is ready for a day at sea. Help him have a safe day by circling the safety equipment he should take along.

Len: Why did you fall down in the ring? He didn't hit you. Lon: No, but I read his mind.

Don: Why did Bob throw the butter out of the window? Mom: To see a butterfly.

Deb: What did the brownie do with a needle and thread? Pan: Soda cracker.

Dad: What man makes a living by driving his customers away? Son: A taxi driver.

Tom: Where did they strike the first nail in the White House? Bob: On the head.

Len: You know, my family goes way, way back. Why, my father has Washington's watch. Ken: That's nothing. My father has Adam's apple.

Tim: What's worse than a giraffe with a sore throat? Tom: An elephant with a bloody посе.

- 1. More people have fun in water recreation than any other single postime in the world.
- 2. A water skier should always wear a lifesaving device. It's the law in some states. Also, there should always be an observer in the boat to watch the water skier.
