Powderpuff tournament set for weekend

A mighty swing

By COLIN GIBSON

Fair maidens and a pretty fair brand of softball will be on display at the Fairgrounds this weekend for the 9th Annual Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff Softball Tournament.

Challenging Georgetown entries will be teams from Orangeville, Midland, Milton, Acton, Erin, Ballinafad and Mississauga.

Tournament games start Friday evenings and continue through Saturday and Sunday.

The tournament Consolation Championship game is slated for 2 p.m. Sunday, with the Championship Final scheduled to begin at 4 p.m. Both games will be played on Fairgrounds Diamond "C".

Tournament organizers have other activities scheduled, including an exhibition softball game between the Powderpuff league coaches and local merchants, 8:30 p.m. Friday and a dance at the Armouries set for 8 p.m. Saturday night. Tickets for the dance can be obtained at the door.

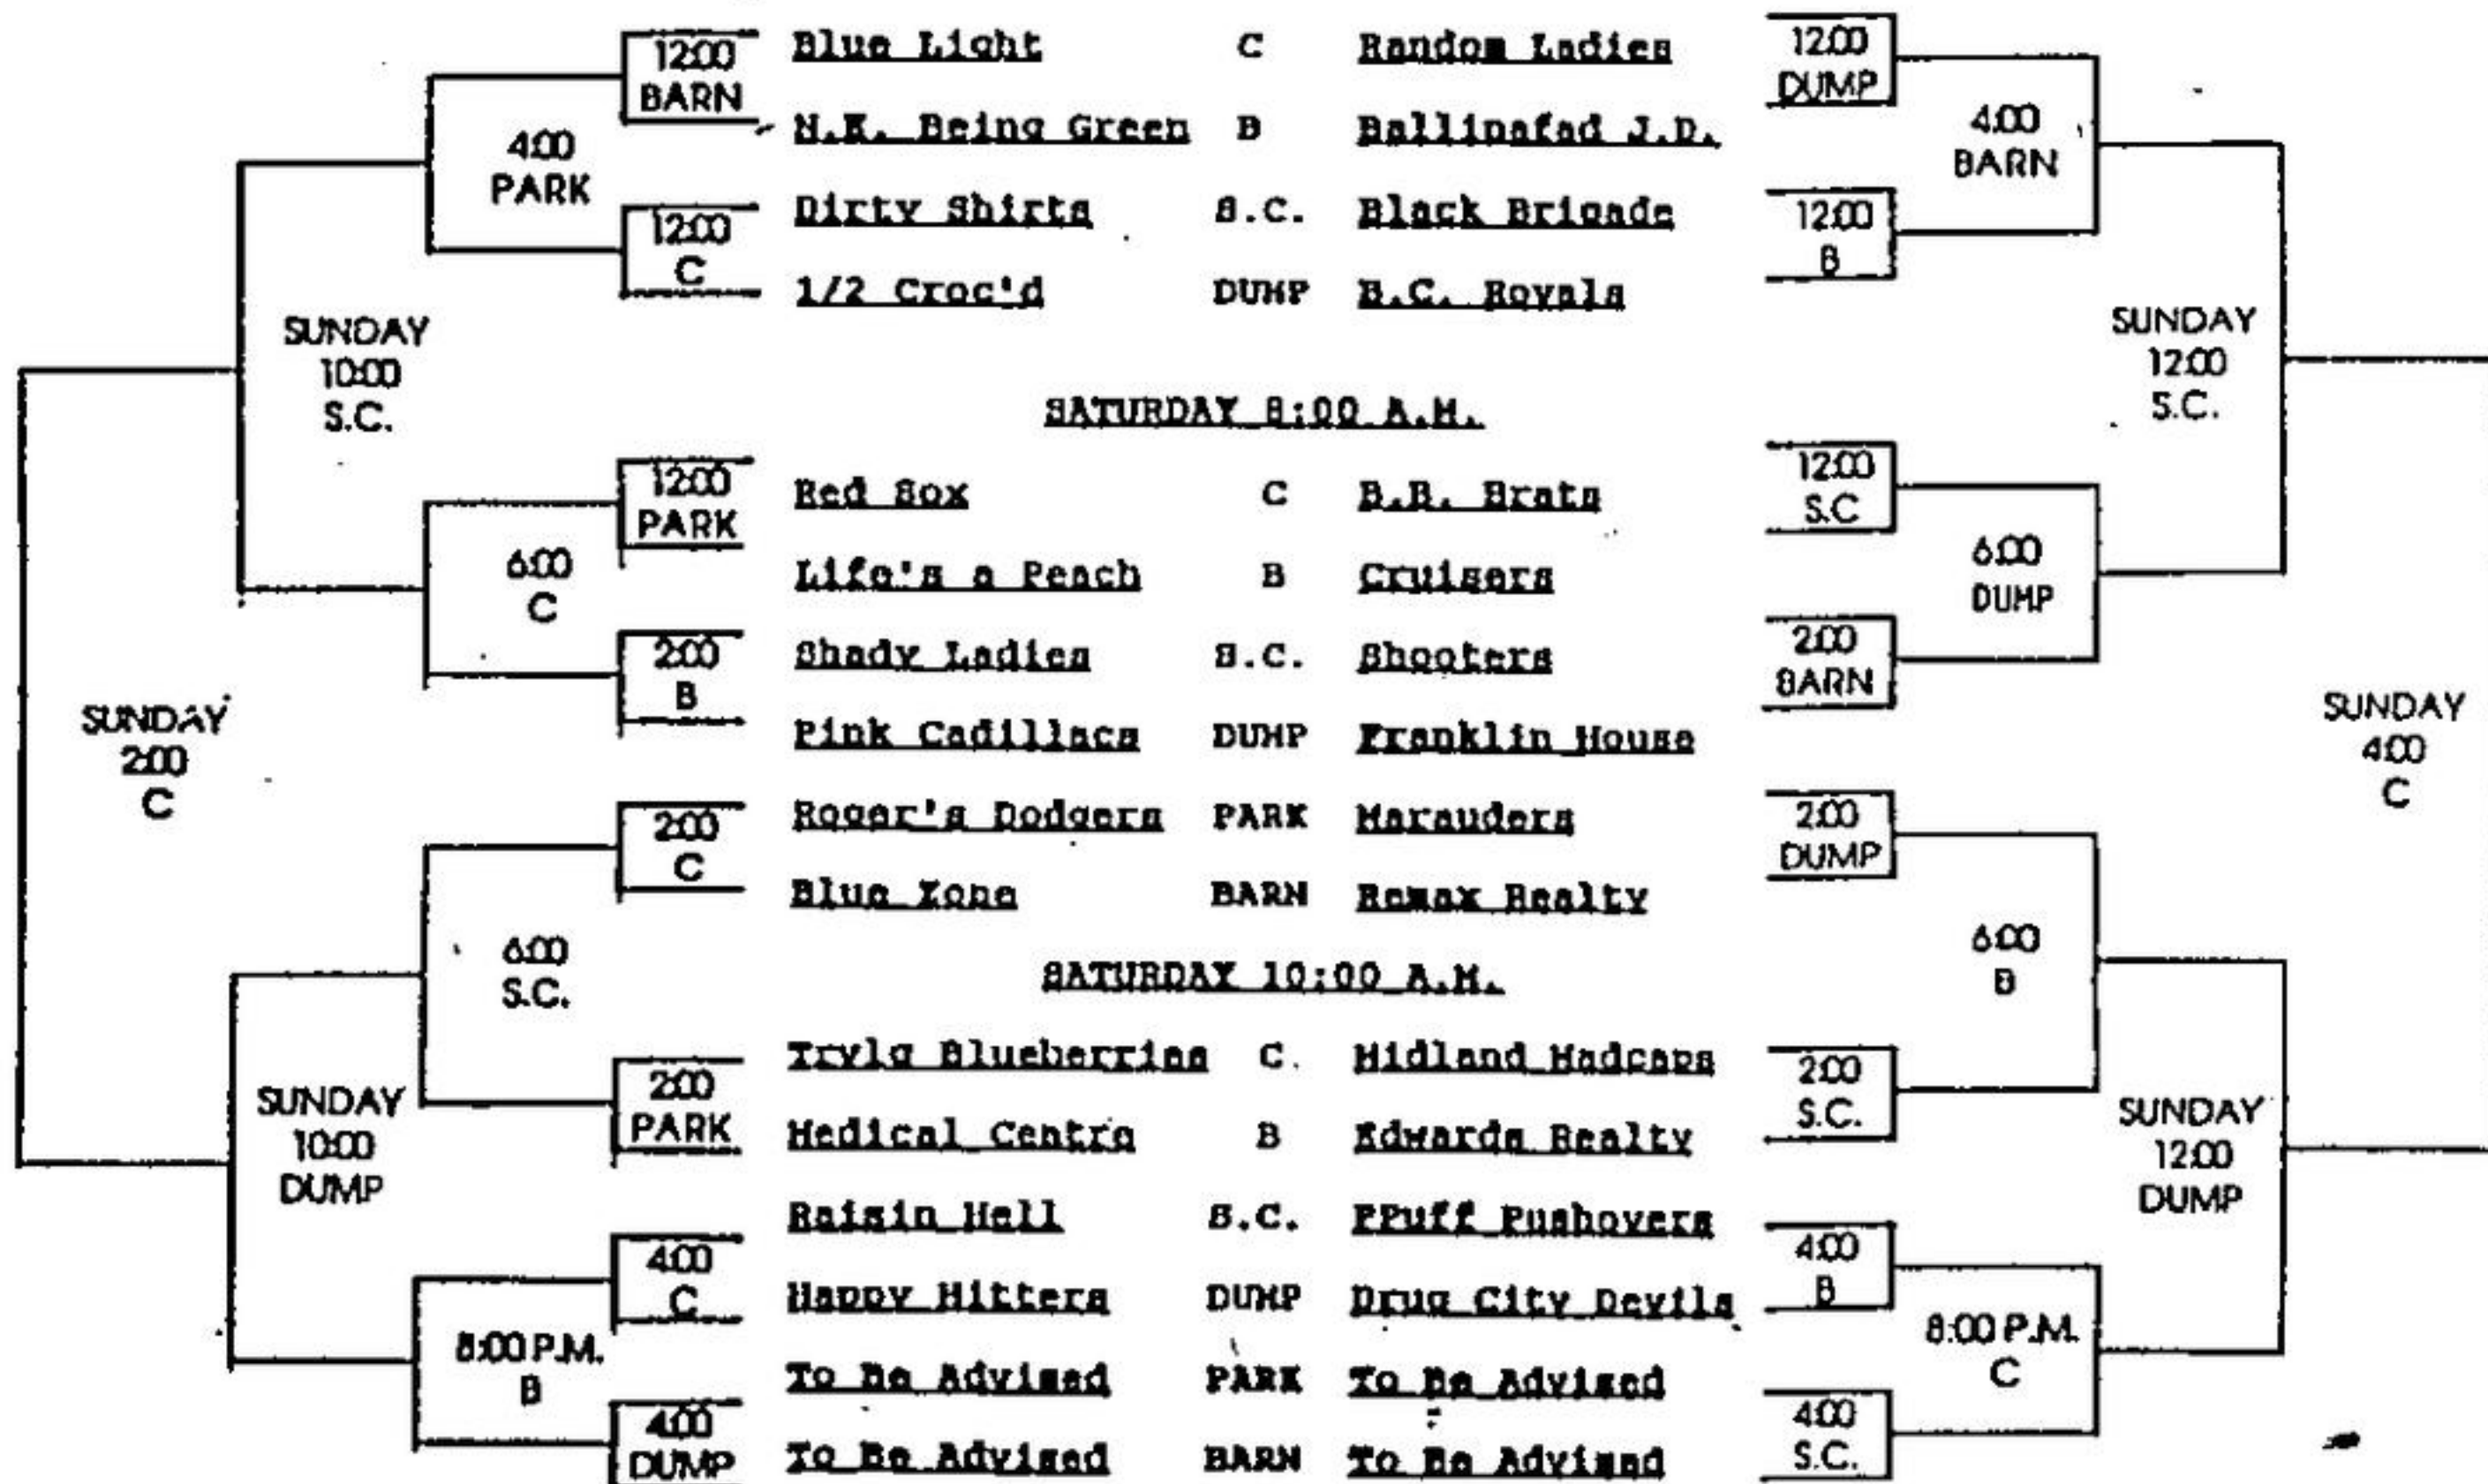

Also, according to tournament organizers, a beer garden will be operating Friday and Saturday for those wishing to escape the heat of the action on the softball diamonds.

The Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff Softball League started with four teams, 16 years ago and now operates with 12 teams.

Regular league games are played every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at the Fairgrounds.
