PERSONAL

Baha'i. War and its ravages have blighted the world; the education of woman will be a mighty step toward its abolition and ending, for she will use her whole influence against war... In truth, she will be the greatest factor in establishing universal peace. Assurably, woman will abolish warfare among mankind. If you would like more information or would like to attend an informal public discussion, a meeting will be held Sept. 6, 7:00 p.m. at the Isabel Watson Room, Acton Library or call 878-6138 or 877-9530.
