

"76th donation"

Jim Dandies take first in Ballinafad

By BETTY SOJKA
Ballinafad Correspondent.

After playing five games with calm, coolness, tight defence and brilliant offence, the Jim Dandies took first place in the "A" Division in the Georgetown tournament. The first game played on Friday night against a Georgetown team ended with a score of 11-0. From then on 11 seemed to be the magic number, with the ladies winning the next two games with a score of 11-3, and the fourth game was won with the score of 11-4.

The final championship game played at 4:00 o'clock on Sunday, ended with the score 14-10. The pitching was consistently outstanding for all five games. The pitching controlled the batters to only hitting high pop ups or grounders in the infield for the majority. This excellent pitching was recognized when both pitchers Sandra Prowse and Marion Lumbers won most valuable player award. One award was given per team for each game. Lisa Longstreet was voted most valuable player in the final championship game when she hit a home run which knocked in a total of three runs. Prior to her hit the score was 8-7 for Ballinafad.

The Jim Dandies were feeling the pressure of such a close score. With Lisa's home run, the Jim Dandies were able to continue the game with renewed confidence. Vivian Bremner had several home runs and triples to her credit during all five games. Kathy Martin and Carol Ann See were note for their defensive play and terrific hitting ability. What really kept the team's spirits up in this final game was the ever cheering fans. They were a constant source of faith in the team. The Jim Dandies thanks them all for their support. Needless to say coach Jim Bailey is on all time high. His strategy of no drinking and no sex during a tournament seems to have worked. Special thanks to Doug for helping Jim with the coaching. Both coaches are to be commended in their coaching skills.

The ladies return to their regular season play on Monday, Aug. 14 when they meet B.B. Brats. Game starts at 6:30 p.m. at M. Z. Bennett School in Acton.

A small number attended the Beach Party Dance at the Community Centre on Saturday, Aug. 11. The deejay had a hard time keeping the party rolling. The crowd numbering around 60 people, did enjoy the luxury of an uncrowded dance floor. The potluck menu was thoroughly enjoyed. As usual there was oodles to go around. Low attendance was attributed to competing dances on this evening as well as vacationers. The next dance in the village will be the Corn Roast Dance in September. Stay tuned for more details in upcoming columns and the August community newsletter.
