Seniors:

Wow! As the season progresses, all of the games are becoming closer and closer. Let's hope that the sequence progresses to the playoffs.

Remax and Dunlop Insurance battled out an "amazing" game as Remax came away with a one run victory.

On the mound were Susan Morey and Bridget McCauley while Dee Dee Haynes and Carrie Walsh split the duties for Dunlop. Smashing in homeruns were Morey and Mc-Cauley of Remax and Jennifer Skinner of Dunlop. Game stars were McCauley and Haynes.

The Glen continues to add to their win column and stretch their first place lead as they beat P and P, 26-18. Pitchers were Paula Rain and Lisa Hamilton of the Glen and Paulette Friolet and Lisa Johnston of P and P. Game stars were P and P's Toni McClements and the Glen's Charlene Christy.

INTERMEDIATE:

Delrex Smoke Shop and Elks Lodge battled out a close game, to have Delrex win 12-8. Hitting in bag-trippers were Amanda Tutt, Michelle Mason, and Jennifer Koster of Delrex and Sheila Stiles of Elks. Game stars were Stiles and Buffy Stringa of Elks and Tutt, who pitched the entire game for Delrex.

In an excellent game, Kentners and Optimists tied 25-25. Each team, hit in the maximum amount of runs in the final inning, with Jamie Connolly knocking in the final three runs for Optimists. Homers were hit in by Denise Hannah, Tracey Green and Jamie Connolly of the Optimists.

Paula Walsh cracked out a grand slam for Kentners. Game stars were Walsh and Hailey Brown of Kentners and Cari Robichaud of Optimists.

JUNIORS:

The junior teams are still keeping their fans in awe, as on Aug. 10, Kinnettes and Youngs battled out a 28-26 Kinnettes victory. Game stars were Heather Boryd, Marie White and Kelly Foxx of Kinnettes and Julie Brown and Brianne Beaumont of Youngs.

Tyke Baseball

Summertime blues

Only one game was scheduled for Aug. 8 in Tyke Baseball and unfortunately, Dave's Service Centre was unable to field the required minimum of seven players so the Optimist team won by default.

A "friendly" game was played anyway with Optimists winning 10-5. For the Optimist's Matthew McCarthy was 2 for 2 while Chris Gostlin had a good pitching performance.

Sam Southworth turned a double play for Dave's Service Centre with a fly ball catch and a good throw to Brendan McCallum at second base.

Two games were scheduled for Aug. 10 and fortunately all teams had sufficient players.

In a close contest the Optimist Club team defeated Dairy Queen 8 to 7. Alan McCaughy had base hits for the Optimists while Chris Gostlin again pitched well.

Stephen Gibbons and Darren Mansfield both had two base hits and two R.B.I.'s for Dairy Queen, while Ryan Penny made a good fly ball catch.

In the other game Tim Horton's defeated Dave's Service Centre 17 to 4. Sam Southworth had two base hits and two R.B.I.'s for Dave's Service Centre while David Pegg pitched well.

Outstanding performances for Tim Horton's by Chris Corney and Matt Borg with three base hits while Danny Vanderbyl in left field threw home to catcher Kyle Springer for an excellent out.

Chris Corney had three R.B.I.'s while Paul Farmer, Mike Walinga, Brad Densmore and Kyle Springer all had one. Pizza Delight player of game went to Mike Kitchen.
