

England rules

North Halton Rugby Club excelled as hosts, but faltered on the field as visiting Kln. Edward VII School of Lytham, Lancashire, England, posted a 29-10 win over a 19-and-under local side in an exhibition rugby game played Saturday at Neilson's Field on Sinclair Avenue. The English 15, boasting one international calibre player and a number of other highly-touted players, led 15-0 at halftime. The English team has exhibition games scheduled in Stratford, Ottawa and Montreal before heading for home. To the team's credit, the host club never let up and acquitted itself well. Kyle Goodlet had two tries for North Halton Rugby Club with Wade Serjeanston kicking a two-point convert. In another game, North Halton Rugby Club's First team defeated Burlington's Second team, 25-3. North Halton Rugby Club's First team wraps-up its 1989 schedule with a game this Saturday in Stoney Creek.

Acton lacrosse team swallows bitter pill

The Acton Tykes minor lacrosse Rep team ended its 1989 season on a bit of a downer, dropping two closely-contested playoff games to Brantford, 8-7 and 6-5 to bow out of the best-of-three playoff series.

In the first game, played in Brantford, Acton led, 5-4 after two periods, only to see Brantford rally to outscore the Halton Hills squad, 4-2 in the final frame to claim the 8-7 win.

Richard Raju played a strong offensive game for Acton, scoring four goals. Single markers were counted by Jeff Newman, Paul Withers and Ryan Young.

Jason Christopher and Paul Withers picked up two assists apiece with single assists going to David Lajeunesse, Ryan Young and Sandy Chapman.

In what proved to be the series final game, in Acton, the third period again proved to be fatal for the hometown team.

Acton led, 4-3 after two periods, but Brantford rebounded to outscore Acton 3-1 in the final stanza to claim the game and the series.

series.

Richard Raju once again paced the Acton attack with three goals. Singles were added by Kyle Artem and Thomas Wolfer.

Raju and Artem also collected single assists.

The team's season will be officially concluded Wednesday (Aug. 23) night with a game against the parents at the Acton Community Centre.
