

Alexandra Treviranus wins Halton W.I. Bursary Award

Halton District Women's Institute is pleased to announce this year's winners of the Dr. Ethel Chapman Scholarship and the District Bursary. Alexandra Treviranus, daughter of Elisabeth and Gerhard Treviranus of R. R. 2 Georgetown won the Dr. Chapman Scholarship worth $300. She has completed many 4H lifestyle clubs including personal finance, conservation, quilting, etiquette for the 80s and computers. From these activities she was chosen to attend the regional conference, provincial camp and the national conference. Alexandra has found that by participating in these clubs she has made many new friends, been given responsibility and been conditioned for future leadership positions. She has also been active in her church youth group and as a Sundry school teacher. In school she belonged to the Outers club and the French club. Alexandra graduated from Georgetown District High School and plans to attend Lakehead University to study for a bachelor of arts in Geography and honours bachelor of outdoor recreation.

Cheryl Lynn Coulter, daughter of Margaret and Eugene Coulter of R. R. 3 Campbellville is the Halton Women's Institute bursary winner of $100. As well as being an active 4H member, Cheri has been involved in school and church activities. She has been a choir member at school and in her church for several years and has participated in music exchanges in Ontario and in the United States. For three years she has been school year book editor and heading up the SADD committee. Cheri has completed Grade 13 at Lester B. Pearson High School and is enrolled in the Biochemistry co-op program at the University of Guelph.
