The sun was shining brightly Saturday but not as brightly as the players, as the Georgetown Baseball Association held its "Day of Champions" for T-Ball, Tyke and Squirt divisions at the Fairgrounds.

The majority of the games were hotly-contested tussles and despite the fact winners had to be declared, it is safe to state that on this day, all those involved from the parents, coaches, umpires, on down to the players could rightfully be declared, deserving champions.

Men's Flag Football

Karry Kitchens upsets DQ in final game

By COLIN GIBSON

The old cliché about 'not-counting your chickens before they hatch' came home to roost in Georgetown Men's Flag Football League play Sunday. Karry Kitchens upset runaway "A" Division regular season champion, Dairy Queen, 13-9 as the 1989 regular season came to a close at the Georgetown High School field.

In other regular season-ending games, Longhorns throttled Plus Welding, 39-0; Muscle Works surprised Oldtimers, 22-13 and Corrigan easily outplayed the Glen, 38-10.

Official league records weren't kept during the formative years of the Men's Flag loop, but Dairy Queen gridders felt certain that if the team had prevailed over Karry Kitchens it would mark the first time a team had gone undefeated in regular-season play.

The on-again-off-again DQ offence sputtered again and that combined with a surprisingly tenacious Karry Kitchens defence and strong leadership from quarterback and team captain, Doug Pemberton, allowed the Kitchens crew to carry the day.

The game was tied 6-6 at halftime with Jim Taggart scoring for Karry Kitchens and Steve "Swivel-hips" Crossman, stunning both teams with a 60-yard pass and run major.

Doug Pemberton.

Ken Lockwood kicked a field goal to give Dairy Queen a 9-6 early second half lead, but Karry Kitchens did not buckle (as many expected) and Anthony Oram gathered in a two-yard toss from QB Pemberton to turn the tide in the winner's favor. Oram also added the convert to seal the 13-9 win.

According to a number of Dairy Queen players, the loss might help cure what's ailing the team as it enters the playoffs hoping to claim its fifth consecutive league championship.

A 39-0 win might seem indicative of an awesome offensive attack, but in the Longhorns win over Plus Welding, it was actually the defence that cemented the victory. Tight coverage accounted for a number of dropped Plus Welding passes and the eventual losers never did get their offence in gear.

The scoring was spread throughout the Longhorns lineup, with Paul Allison collecting 12 points, Gary Hulbert adding eight points and Jim Lindsay, Wayne Dole and Bruce Mitchell counting scoring majors.

Dave Paterson rounded out the Longhorn scoring with a single point from a convert.

Despite the fact his team failed to make the league's playoffs, Stephan Roy almost singlehandedly restored a certain amount of pride in leading an undermanned Muscle Works squad to a 22-13 win over the Oldtimers.

Brad Ferguson

Oldtimers jumped out to an early 7-0 lead, then Roy took over.

He scored a touchdown, added the convert and kicked a field goal to allow Muscle Works to lead, 10-7 at the half.

In the second half, Roy scored two more touchdowns to seal the win. One of the majors came off an interception. The interception-major was the second steal of an errant Oldtimers pass in the game for Roy.

Mario Santos and Paul Martin had scoring majors for the Oldtimers, with Bill Fournier kicking a convert.

Corrigan continues to baffle opponents with a multi-faceted offence and their 44-10 romp over the Glen only emphasized this aspect of their total game.

Corrigan led 30-10 at the half and counted 14 second half points in the easy win.

John Egan and Wayne Stasivlis each scored 12 points for the winners. League scoring champion Brad Ferguson, had eight points.

Les Starr and Linus Stasivlis each counted scoring majors for Corrigan.

Mike West scored six points for the Glen, with Sean McQuarrie adding four points - one on a booming 65-yard kickoff that went for a single.

The league takes the coming long weekend off, with playoffs commencing, Sept. 10 at the Georgetown High School field.
