Glen Williams team claims Senior title

SENIORS

Well, it is finally over. As the senior girls conquered the storm and they were able to finish the semis and finals Tuesday night.

Before I report on the outcome of the games, I would like to thank all of the coaches, and umpires who have volunteered their Tuesday evenings to help the girls.

Secondly, I would like to thank the four sponsors without whom, we could never play: Mal Dodge's ReMax, Pictures and Presents, Dunlop Insurance and Casper's Cafe.

Lastly, I would like to thank Mr. Jim Ford and his executive who have set up the league and who made sure that our season ran smoothly.

Now to the outcome of the games...

Over on the senior citizen diamond, Dunlop Insurance hit their peak early as they won the toss of the coin, but unfortunately, from there on it went downhill, as they lost to the Glen 25-11.

At the mound for the Glen were Lisa Hamilton and Paula Rain while Carrie Walsh and Dee Dee Haynes divided the pitching duties for Dunlop.

Moving into the final game was just as easy for ReMax, as they were victorious over Pictures and Presents on "C" diamond.

Coach Andrea Ford was treated to a much improved team, as ReMax, who finished in the basement throughout the season, was to move on and face the top-seeded Glen Williams team.

Before the final game could be on its way, Jim Ford made a presentation to the league's MVPs.

This award is presented to those players who the coaches feel are worthy. This year's recipients were Dunlop's Susan Walsh, Glen's Charlene Christy and ReMax's Susan Morey, who was also last year's award holder.

In the final game, ReMax sprang to an early lead and they continued to gain momentum as they more than tripled the Glen, 22-7.

Leading their team to the upset victory were Susan Morey and Christine Wilson while Lisa Hamilton and Paula Rain tried in vain to keep the fight alive for the Glen.

Knocking in homeruns for ReMax were Bridget McCauley and Robbyn Burke.

Before ReMax and their coaches, Andrea Ford and Mr. Morey, were presented their championship trophies, the Glen's Lisa Hamilton was presented with the playoff's MVP award.

Lisa pitched the majority of both games and she also hit very well at the plate.

Special mention goes to Liane Monchamp of Dunlop Insurance as she received the two available votes for Dunlop's single game.

The Kinsmen Senior Girls would like to thank the people at A and S Engraving and Trophies, who engraved the MVP trophy for us.

Family swimming for pre-schoolers

New even the youngest member of your family can get in the swim! A new aquatic program designed for pre-schoolers is being launched at both the Acton and Georgetown Indoor Pools this fall. The program developed by the Ontario Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society, provides instruction for three groups of pre-school children.

"Waterbabies" provides water orientation for children under one year and includes their parent's participation. The one to five year old with mom or dad's support will learn Water Accommodation and Basic Swim Skills in the "Kinderswim" level. "Starfish" is geared to the three to five year old non-swimmer, and does not involve parent participation.

The last of the new pre-school levels is "Guppy." This level is for the three to five year old and introduces the child to floatation skills with assistance (parents do not participate in this level). Registration for all aquatic programs begins Saturday, Sept. 9 at the Acton Indoor Pool or the Georgetown High School Library lobby entrance. For information on how to introduce your child to a lifetime of enjoyable aquatics, call 873-2600 ext. 266.
