

Follow new trends at Emerald Isle

Ruth and Bert Wilson own and operate the Emerald Isle Bedroom Gallery and Gifts, located at 130 Guelph St. They sell box springs and mattresses, bedroom suites, comforters, linen, towels, wicker baskets, and Irish crystal.

The Emerald Isle prides itself on keeping up with new trends in bedroom styles and they always have new lines of comforters, sheets, and towels. They hope to eventually expand the business, and they want to cater to "your total sleep experience."

"Chaos and warmth" at Cafe Hilde

At Cafe Hilde you get all the chaos and warmth of a family gathering, but you don't have to do the dishes afterwards.

Hilde Colling, owner of the Acton cafe on Mill Street, says she likes to keep the cafe personal. You're not a number at Hilde's, she says.

The cafe serves lunches and desserts. There is a selection of fresh baked goods, including scones, croissants, bread, squares, muffins and birthday cakes. You can take Hilde's fare out or enjoy in the "cozy" dining room.

Hilde says she appreciates "the support of my customers who return even though things can be very disorganized and chaotic."

"I am trying hard to make (the cafe) a cozy place to have a lunch, or a light snack. I also sell a variety of dessert squares, cookies, quiche (and) muffins."

Hilde has travelled throughout Canada, is married and has a teenage son. She likes to travel, "be lazy" and has a "fondness" for rabbits, she says.

There are new items on the menu at Hilde's Mill Street cafe, but she says people will remember her store for what it has always been.

"Cafe Hilde, once the Bread Basket Bakery, is owned by the same disorganized person. (The) menu is almost as good as mom's," and food "is served with the same slaphappy confusion."
