$400 stolen

Halton Regional Police say $400 in cash and $100 worth of credit cards and identification papers were stolen from an unlocked 1989 Hyundai parked on Guelph Street in Norval sometime between Aug. 28 and last Friday. The culprit gained access through the vehicle's passenger door. The door wasn't damaged, police say.

$100 damage

Police report someone caused $100 damage to an irrigation pump at the Georgetown Golf Club at the Tenth Line and Sideroad 17 overnight Aug. 30. Sand "mysteriously" found its way into the oil pan, police say.

Door smashed

Someone smashed a glass door at George Kennedy Public School in Georgetown causing approximately $250 damage late Thursday afternoon. However no one entered the building.

Car damaged

Police say someone caused $100 damage to the lock of a 1981 Mazda RX-7 parked in an Armstrong Avenue driveway in Georgetown sometime between Aug. 28 and Sept. 1. Nothing was stolen from the car.

Rock thrown

Someone threw a large rock at a Lewis Street garage door denting the door, causing $50 damage overnight Sept. 1, police say.

Man charged

Charges of impaired driving were laid following a spot check on Queen Street in Acton Friday night. A 45-year-old Campbellville man appeared at a bail hearing Tuesday where a court date was set in connection with the incident.

Wallet stolen

Police say someone stole a wallet containing $100 from a vehicle while the car's owner was drying it, outside a Guelph Street car wash Saturday afternoon.

Impaired charges

Police have laid charges of impaired driving following an alleged traffic violation at John Street and Mountainview Road North in Georgetown Sunday afternoon. A 19-year-old Georgetown man is scheduled to appear in court Oct. 2 in connection with the incident.

Charges laid

Charges of impaired driving were laid after police saw a vehicle being driven in an erratic manner at Mill and Main Street in Georgetown Saturday night. A 35-year-old Georgetown man will appear in court Oct. 2 in connection with the incident.

Sign damaged

Police say someone vandalized a parking directional sign at Main Street South and Church Street in Acton, causing $50 damage sometime Saturday.

Two-car collision

Police have laid charges of making an improper turn following a two-car collision on the Fourth Line north of Highway 7 in Halton Hills, Saturday night. A 1987 Mercury, driven southbound on the Fourth Line by a 47-year-old Halton Hills resident, was severely damaged when it collided with a 1987 Ford. The Ford driver, a 34-year-old Georgetown woman, was reversing into a driveway when the accident occurred.

Radiators stolen

About 100 radiators worth approximately $500 were stolen from an auto-wrecking site on the Fourth Line north of Sideroad 17 sometime overnight Aug. 25. The culprits gained access to the site after they broke the main gate lock.

Crime Stoppers of Halton

Halton police in Burlington are seeking assistance with their investigation into a home entry which netted the culprits $53,000 worth of household goods and jewellery.

On Sunday, July 30, 1989, the owners of a home on Woodland Park Drive, Burlington returned home to find that their home had been looted.

Investigators found that the home had been entered by a rear door by four persons who removed numerous items including tables, chairs, rugs, pictures, television sets, silverware, china and jewellery.

Tracks located at the scene indicate that the stolen property was loaded into a truck parked on the property of the home next door.

Included in the stolen property were:

- a 21" Sony and a 14" Electrohome TV.
- a Toshiba microwave oven.
- an oval mahogany dining room table with six chairs.
- dark oak, 70-year-old serving cart with a glass top.
- 96-piece sterling silver place settings inscribed with the letter "Q".
- gold men's wedding band inscribed "to CFW from MLQ 10/10/46."

Also taken were numerous paintings and rugs. Crime Stoppers is asking for anyone with any information on this theft to call. Did you see any suspicious activities that weekend? Do you know anyone who is selling similar property? If so, you can call Crime Stoppers. You'll never have to give your name or go to court. The Crime Stoppers toll free number is 1-800-668-5151.

Halton Regional Police officer Derek Hetherington gets set to write up a seat belt violation ticket Monday morning on Guelph Street just east of Main Street. Georgetown and Acton based police officers were helping out the force's Rural Regional Task Force clamp down on seat belt and speeding offenders. About 200 tickets were handed out in Georgetown and Acton during a six-hour period spanning Sunday and Monday. Sergeant Ken Bonham of the department's Regional Traffic Bureau said. The task force has issued 259 speeding tickets, 26 seat belt tickets and 19 others in Halton Hills and Milton alone since it began cracking down on traffic violators, the beginning of last week. The task force has issued 469 tickets throughout the Region since the program began, Sgt. Bonham said. (Herald photo)
