Sinclair, Madill, claim club championships

North Halton Golf and Country Club's men's and ladies' 1989 club championships were decided Sunday with Gloria Sinclair emerging as the ladies overall champion and Terry Madill climbing out of the shadows in "B" Flight to lay claim to men's club championship honors.

John Harrison was the Low Gross senior men's champion and Dwayne Hay was the men's Lefthanders Low Gross champion.

On the ladies side, Ann Currie claimed the senior ladies title, with Jean Chappel winning the Diamond Lil Division.

North Halton Golf and Country Club's Junior championships are scheduled for Sept. 17.

Georgetown Golf and Country Club will be the site Sept. 18, of the Regional championship for the Miller Lite 4 Man Team scramble.

According to club professional Dave Kemphead, 150 golfers representing the Toronto West Region will be at the local club hoping to qualify for the provincial final scheduled for Sept. 28 at Glen Abbey Golf Club in Oakville.

Fifteen regions will be represented at Glen Abbey, and those competing will be vying for a virtual treasure trove including cash and trips to various exotic golf venues at various world ports-of-call.
