

Now try it my way

Acton Tait Realty Sabres coach, Ken Steen, welcomed 32 skaters to the team's main training camp which opened Friday night at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena. The Mid-Ontario Junior "C" Hockey League club has high hopes for the upcoming 1989-90 season and the no-nonsense approach to hockey in the training camp reflects this attitude. Sabres have an intersquad game scheduled for Friday night, 8 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena. The team's first exhibition game is slated for Sept. 15, against Staynor, at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

Playoffs on tap

Herald Special

It's playoff time in the Georgetown Men's Flag Football League. Here are this Sunday's picks.

8:45 a.m. - M and M vs KARRY KITCHENS (by 21). For the last two years, Karry Kitchens has played David to opponents Goliath in upsetting undefeated teams in final regular season contests. Karry Kitchens has been improving week by week and are on a three-game winning streak. The only reason M and M is in the playoffs is because the team plays in a weak division and got off to a fast regular schedule start. The cream rises to the top and, unfortunately, M and M is similar to skim milk.

10:00 a.m. - Plus Welding vs LONGHORNS (by 20). Plus Welding started big and should finish big - only on the flip side of the coin. Longhorns are hungry and will definitely 'eat steel' this Sunday.

11:15 a.m. - Oldtimers vs DIARY QUEEN (by 35). Oldtimers are breaking in a new quarterback. Too bad for them. Dairy Queen will be steamed at not going undefeated through regular season play. The only question will be is 35 points enough of a spread.

12:30 p.m. - Glen vs CORRIGAN (by 19). While every team in the league has a certain amount of depth, no team compares to Corrigan and the one-two quarterback combination of Pat McKinnon and John Egan. Compare this to the Glen's basic four receiver core and bet the farm on Corrigan.
