

Inter county league play

Meteor takes first place as season ends

The Inter County league final league placings have now been decided. Three minutes separated the Marlin Travel from first or second place in their tussle with Meteor.

From the beginning of the season Marlin led the way. However the late goal by Mike Ackroyd of Meteor was enough to make them wait for the next result from Meteor, which, out of the blue had an opportunity to take first place.

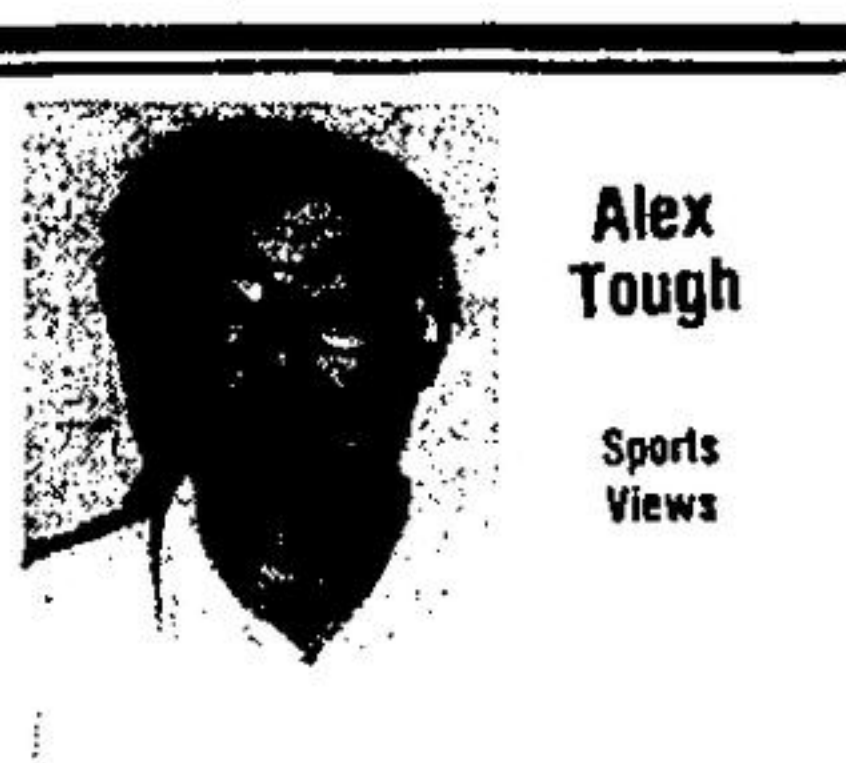

The deciding game took place last Monday when Meteor took Crown and Anchor apart in the first half with four quick goals. Although Crown came back in the second half with all the pressure it was Meteor which were more dangerous in breakaways.

Crown did manage a consolation goal. After lying in third place all season, Meteor came through to win first place. Marlin finish second and Crown third with Eagles, Villa and Mariners following.

The second division was already decided a week or so ago and Meteor second team United are winners, giving the club a rare double these days. Trexcon finished second with Laurentians third. Ajax, Tam O'Shanter, Stingers and Milton follow in order.

Depending upon next season's entries Mariners are relegated with United being promoted. And now to the round robin playoffs. And surprises.

Firstly, Mariners pull off another win, this time destroying Marlin by 4-0 and struck woodwork twice in addition to the goals. Two penalty counters were scored by Danny Shields with Steve Cartwright and Mike Giusto hammering home singles.

Villa defeated Meteor by 2-1 and Villa only had 10 players for the match. Steve Smith and Paul Westaway netted for Villa and Ron VanItem replied for Meteor, which were short of a key player or two although having the luxury of a substitute.

The remaining first division game was a close affair with Crown coming out on top by the only goal of the game.

In the second division no results from the Laurentian/Ajax and Stingers/Milton game. In Ajax' case no referee turned up for their game at Dixie and no result has been called in from the other game.

America United came, saw and conquered in the exhibition game at Alcott last Thursday. Apparently the United were a senior age team and played against a mixed bantam/junior age squad from the Acton soccer club. Some nice soccer and skills were displayed and the visitors ran up six goals or so before Acton arrived on the score sheet. A good match was seen by those who were there.

The youth finals on the 16th will have all mini teams playing and all the boys and girls divisions will take part with the group finals. In addition there will be a game between the winners of a Milton/Acton bantam game and the Georgetown finalists in the boys division. It is certainly going to be a busy day, the Ontario finals are on the same day in Burlington.

Local referee John DeVries has been on the injury list the past couple of weeks due to too much officiating at the annual North Bay tournament.

Also, Luc Bertrand is courting a sore ankle and shows that too many outings can cause niggling problems. At the risk of sounding boring, this highlights the shortage of officials.

In the CSL, as I pen, Blizzard still lead the East division from Steelers despite the latter team's 18 in a row without loss. Steelers whacked Edmonton 4-0 and Blizzard squeaked a 3-2 win over Ottawa.

This result effectly removes Ottawa from the playoff picture, leaving Blizzard, Steelers and North York Rockets in contention.

Vancouver continues to head the West division with Edmonton and Calgary in pursuit. Overall Vancouver lead Blizzard by two points and the overall leader at the end of league play hosts the final, therefore it is important to keep form until the end.

This Wednesday, the 6th, we have the Inter County playoffs continued with Villa vs Marlin at McKenzie and Ajax vs Stinger at Alcott, both early kick offs (6:30 and 6:45 respectively).

Also early at Meadowglen has United host Laurentian (which defaulted two points to Ajax for last week's failure to provide a referee).

Late at Alcott has Meteor vs Crown and at Cedarvale Mariners play Eagles, which is the designated home team for the match.
