PAGE, Barry P.S. In loving memory of a loving husband, father and grandpa, who passed away suddenly on September 6, 1987. He bade no one a last farewell. He said good-bye to none. HOLE, Brinley John. In loving memory of my very dear husband and father, who left us so suddenly one year ago, Sept. 5th, 1988. He is gone but not forgotten. And, as dawns another year in our lonely hours of thinking. Thoughts of him are always near. Days of sadness will come over us. Many think the wound is healed. But they little know the sorrow that lies in the heart concealed. —From your ever loving wife Amy, sons, daughters and families.

HOLE, John. In memory of a dear father who passed away on September 5, 1988. The blow was great, the shock severe. We little thought the end was near. And only those who have lost can tell. The pain of parting without farewell. More each day we miss you, father. Friends may think the wound is healed. But they little know the sorrow. That lies within our hearts concealed. Lovingly remembered your daughter, Rosemarie.

PERSONAL
The Great Peace towards which people of good will throughout the centuries have inclined their hearts, of which seers and poets for countless generations have expressed their vision, and for which from age to age the sacred scriptures of mankind have constantly held the promise, is now at long last within the reach of the nations. For the first time in history it is possible for everyone to view the entire planet, with all its myriad diversified peoples, in one perspective. World Peace is not only possible but inevitable. It is the next stage in the evolution of this planet. If you would like more information or would like to attend an informal public discussion, a meeting will be held Sept. 6 (this evening) at the Acton Library or phone 878-6138.
