ASK DICK KLEINER

DICK KLEINER

Q. My friends and I have been watching reruns of "The Brady Bunch" for years. We have had many arguments about what happened to Susan Olsen, who played Cindy. On the latest show, with the Brady kids grown up, she was replaced. Some say she was killed. What really happened to her? Please, this has us baffled. — A.D., Flagstaff, Ariz.

A. You are hereby debaffled: Susan Olsen left acting. She is doing very well as a grown up entrepreneur. She has a thriving business in Los Angeles — among other things, she makes and distributes hand-painted sneakers. So, she didn't want to appear on that TV show. She has bigger fish to fry.

Q. The guy on "Murder, She Wrote" who plays Sheriff Metzger not only sounds like Lou Costello, but he bears a strong resemblance to him. Are they related? — S.S.D., Sioux City, Iowa.

A. No. Ron Masak, who plays that role, is not a Costello kin.

Q. Can you tell me the name of the 1960s beach movie starring Shelley Fabares, Barbara Eden and Bill Bixby? — S.B., Racine, Wis.

A. Barbara and Shelley were in a peachy beachy beauty called "Ride the Wild Surf" in 1964 — but Bill Bixby wasn't. The male leads were Fabian and Tab Hunter. No, it's not available on cassette, if you were going to ask.

Q. Kim Basinger has been featured in quite a few motion pictures recently. Has she ever done much on TV? — L.L., Trenton, N.J.

A. She's done a few things. Back in 1977, when she was just starting, she co-starred with Lou Antonio in a short-lived series called "Cat and Dog." She also had a big role in "From Here to Eternity" in 1979.

A. During the mid-'60s, I remember watching a weekly series with George C. Scott playing a social worker. What was the name of it? — V.L., Memramcook, N.B., Canada.

A. That was "East Side/West Side" from 1963. It was memorable because Cicely Tyson had a continuing role — the first black actor to have a major role in a TV series.

Q. A friend insists that Shirley Jones' husband was the deceased actor, Victor French. I know she was once married to Jack Cassidy, but who is she married to now? — P., Thousand Oaks, Calif.

A. You're right. Shirley was married to the late Jack Cassidy, not French. She is now Mrs. Marty Ingels, wife of the comic-turned-producer.

Q. I've noticed there is a new Maytag repair man. I've seen his face, but can't remember his name. Who is he, and why the change? — R.P., Amarillo, Texas.

A. The company felt it was time for a change, so they switched to Gordon Jump, formerly on "WKRP in Cincinnati."
