40th anniversary

NORVAL-Congratulations to Clark and Ruth Lyons of RR2 Norval, on their 40th wedding anniversary. Their family of one daughter and three sons, Gayle and her husband Brian Robinson of Norval, Gary and his wife Julie, Gord and his fiancée Cathy Longhurst, both of RR1, Georgetown, and Glen and his wife Dawna of Streetsville, entertained for their parents on Friday evening, Sept. 15.

A family roast beef dinner for 85 was enjoyed at St. George's Church Hall, Georgetown. Following the dinner, their youngest son, Glen, chaired the evening and called on his brother Gary to introduce the head table of 40 years ago. Along with Clark and Ruth were Marie Widdis, sister of Ruth, Edith Reid, sister of Clark's, and Ella Laidlaw, a cousin, were attendants. Bili Laidlaw, a cousin was best man, and Doug Reid and Al Widdis were ushers. Glen then called on his brother Gord, who reminisced on his grandparents, Harold and Mabel Lyons and Victor and Marie Mason. They were able to pass their loving influence on to his parents, who in turn are passing it on to their family and grandchildren. Daughter Gayle directed the five oldest grandchildren when they sang a couple of musical numbers for the dinner, as well as the dance later. Those singing were David and Lesley Anne Robinson, Neal, Greg and Matt Lyons.

During the dance that followed Alderman John Hutton presented a certificate to Clark and Ruth on behalf of Ken Whillams, Mayor of Brampton. Clark and Ruth cut the anniversary cake that was later enjoyed with ice cream for lunch, and many more happy anniversaries were extended to the happy couple.

80th birthday

NORVAL-Around 140 friends and relatives gathered at Ballinacree Church on Sept. 3, to wish Fred Shortill a happy 80th birthday. Fred's son Ross and his wife Mary Lou and family Rob, Tonya, and Jerry from Ottawa attended. Also his daughter Anne and Lloyd McKintyre and family, Scott, Daryn, and Meighan of Acton. A family dinner was held at the North Halton Golf and Country Club later that evening.

Job wedding

NORVAL-Prairie Bessey and Marg Tost of Georgetown, attended the wedding of their great niece Annette Job, daughter of Paul and Barbara Job of Milton, to David Plant, son of Ron and Joyce Plant of Hornby. The wedding took place in Boston Presbyterian Church on Sept. 9, at 4 p.m. and the reception followed at the Italian Canadian Club, Milton. They will make their home in Milton.

The bride is the granddaughter of Jean Job of Guelph, and the groom is the grandson of Laura Plant of Hornby.

Fair winner

NORVAL-Norval area farmer

Harry Brander of RR2, won several prizes at Brampton Fair on Sept. 14-17. A sheaf of ensilage corn, won him a red ribbon, as well as a third on ten cobs of Pioneer Corn. He received a trophy for his corn exhibit donated by Lloyd Gray, the Pioneer Dealer of Brampton and two units of seed corn from the Mardix Farms. Harry also placed first in the field crop competition, and round hay bales, judged at the farm won him a fourth prize.

Harry's father Bill Brander of RR2 Norval, won a second in a sheaf of corn and second on wheat at Brampton Fair.

POWER meets

NORVAL-The monthly POWER meeting will be held at Limehouse School at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 20, changed from Thursday. Halton Hills people should think seriously about this issue. What we take so much for granted as our good spring water from underground streams could be in trouble if this dump goes in. POWER people need your strong voice to help them out.

Baby boy

NORVAL-Congratulations to Doug and Amy Thompson of RR1 Lucknow, on the birth of their son Elliott Douglas on Sept. 14 at the Wingham Hospital. Proud grandparents are Roy and Heather Ann Thompson of RR4 Georgetown and Eileen Miller of Wingham. First great grandson for Florence Hutton of Brampton.

Round and round

Marjorie Douglas and Al Jones whoop it up at the opening night of the Pine Valley Square Dancing Club. The pair swung their partner around to the strains of country favorites. The square dance group meets tonight (Wednesday) at 8 p.m. at Pineview Public School. (Herald photo)
