

They got around at the Acton Fair

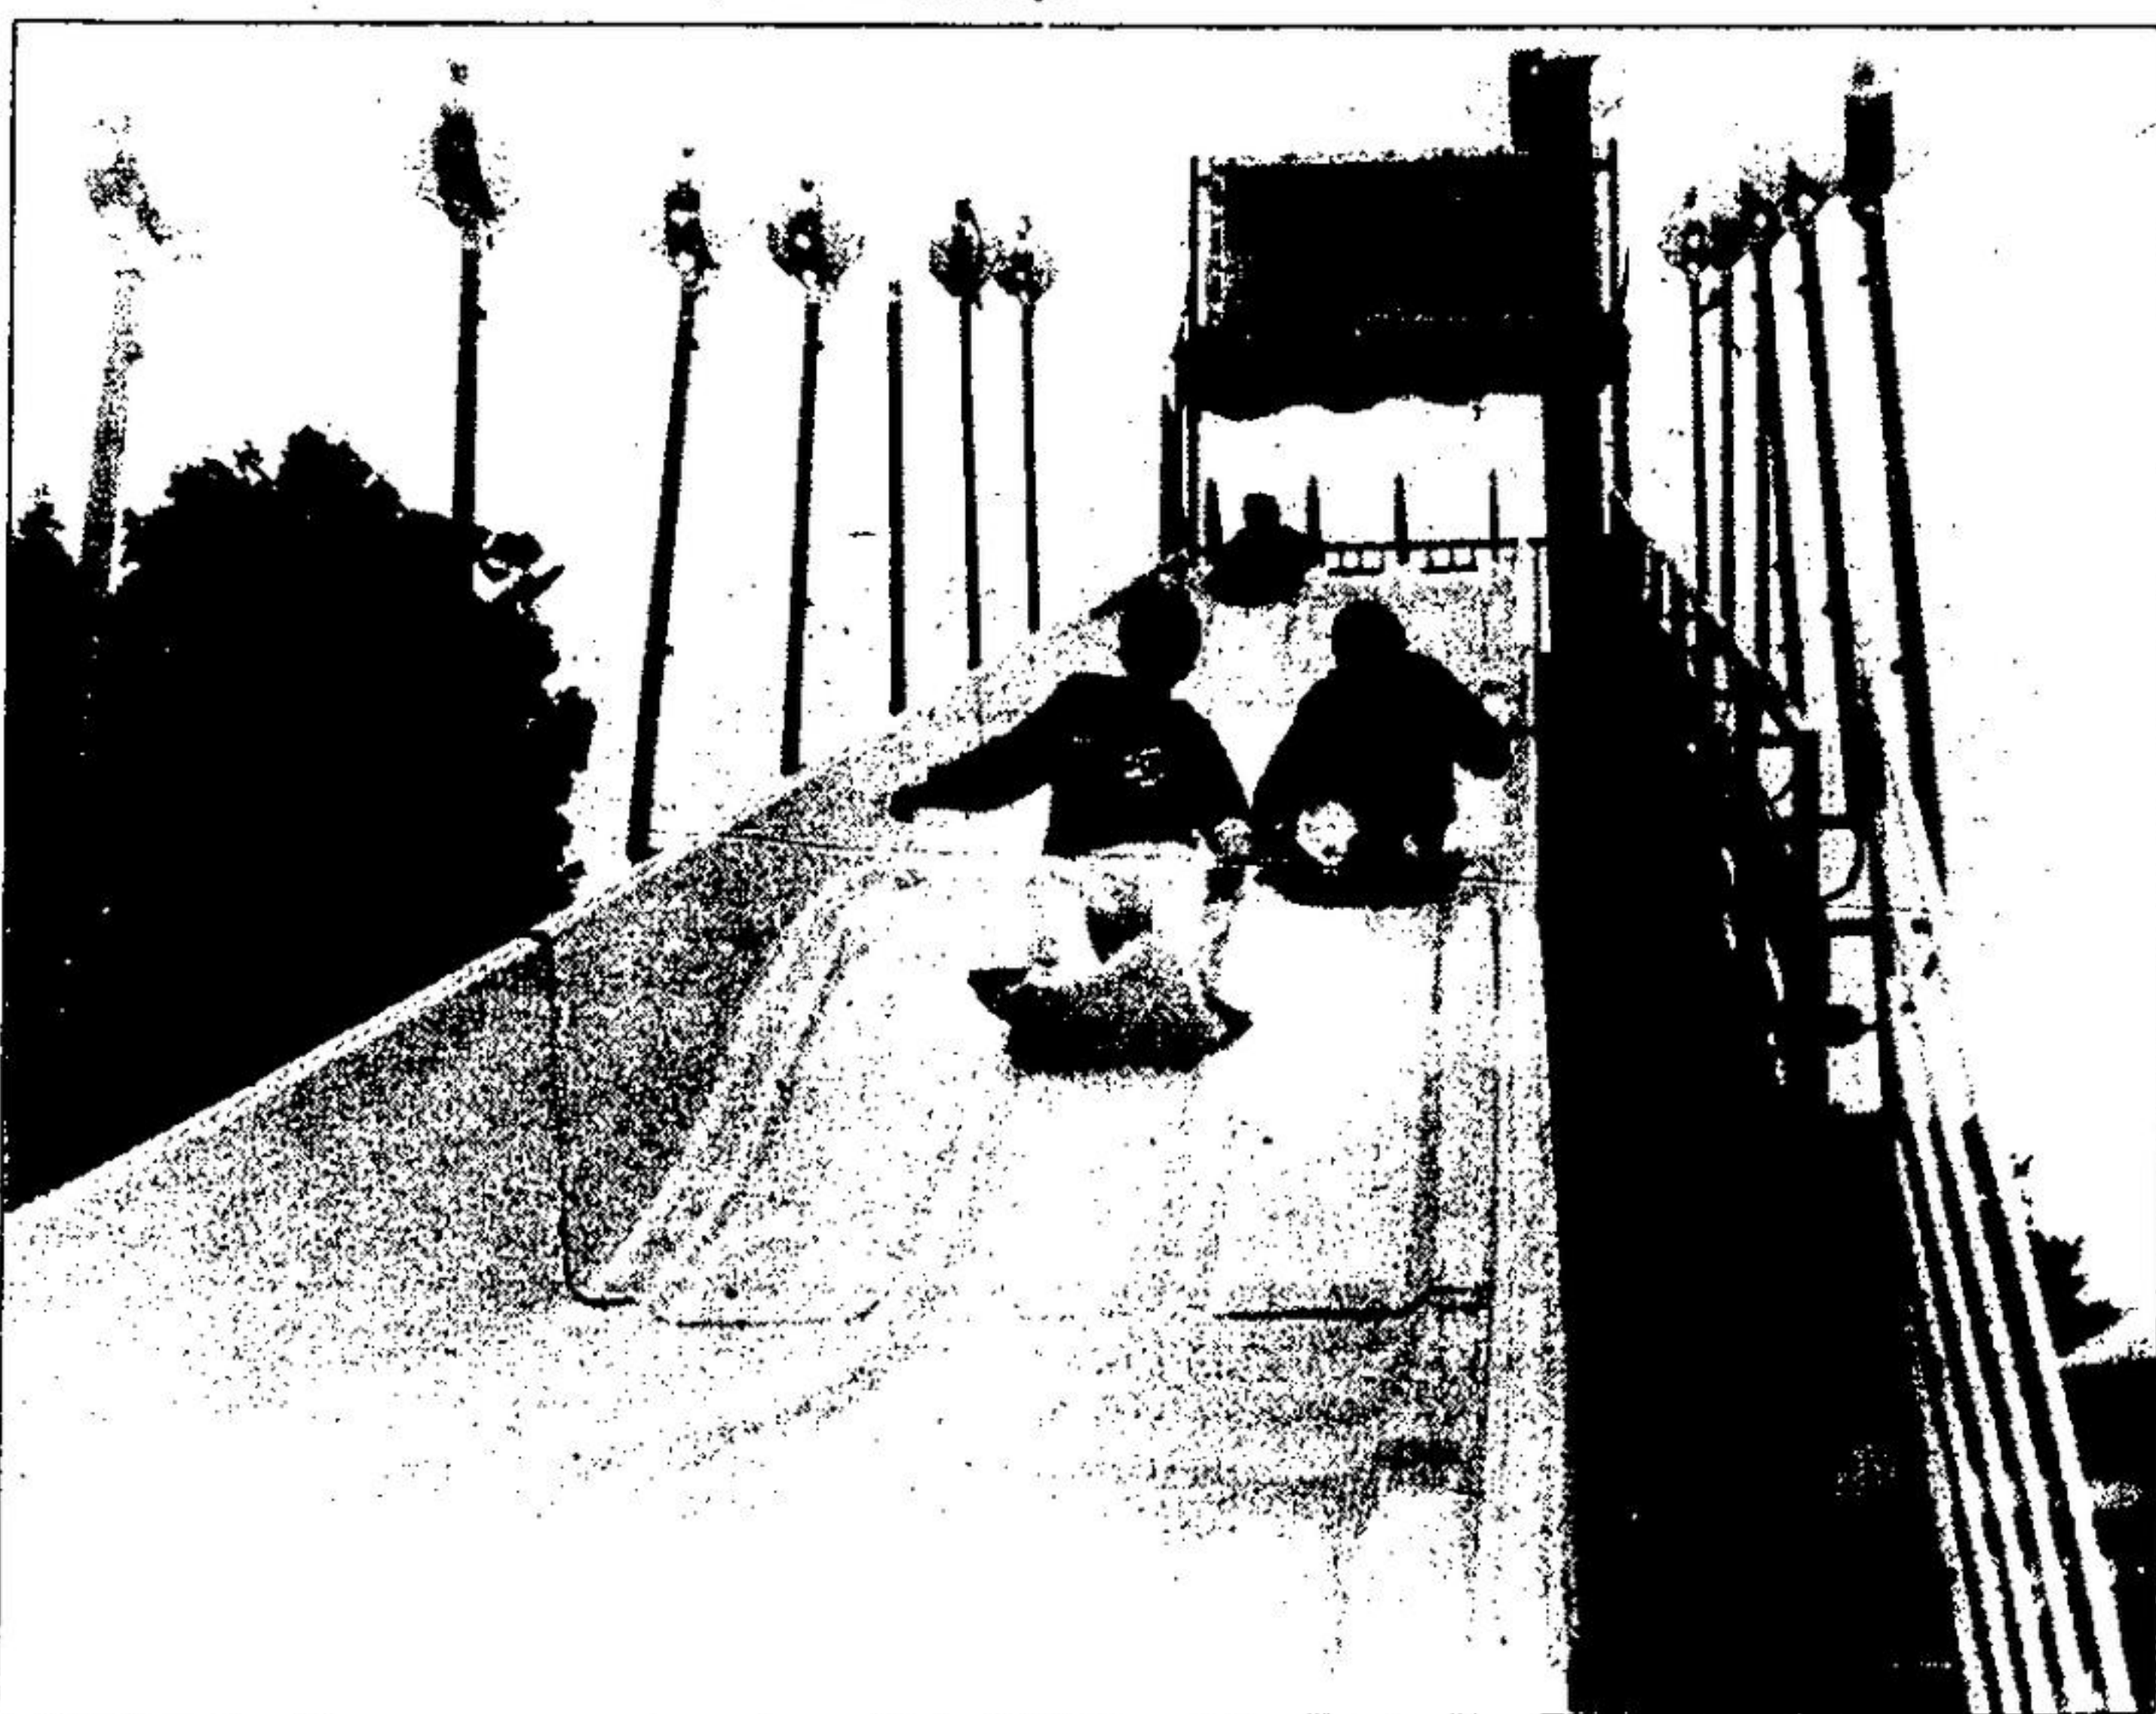

Peel Shriners, from left, Iffy the Clown (Herb Morrison), Noble, Bill Dick and Daffy (Don Clarke) found out mini-cars can be affected by the weather as well as humans. But the wet weather didn't keep people away from the fair.

The wet weather didn't seem to bother Ryan Intzandt (left) and friend, Trevor Hall. The youngsters were just happy to be at the Acton fair on Saturday.

Heather Laing (left) and Lisa Shoebridge, help donkey team handler Fred Barlow of Earleton, steer a straight course. The donkeys, Sissy and Leroy, didn't much fancy the wet weather as young Miss Laing found out.

The wet weather Saturday didn't dampen these youngsters' spirits at the Acton Fall Fair's Super Slide. Some events had to be cancelled due to rain but the fair still drew twice Acton's population.

Richard Webb, 18 months old, from Acton, was all set to plow the fields, Saturday, at the Acton Fall Fair. Attendance was down but the fair was still a success.

HERALD
PHOTOS
by
COLIN GIBSON

Bella-Maye Roszell has become something of an institution at the Acton Fall Fair. She was a hit at the fair on Sunday.