BURTON, Ruth Morgan at the ExtendaCare Nursing Home in Athabasca, Alberta on Friday, 15th of September, 1989. Born in 1905 at Hamilton, she recently lived at the Bennett Centre, Georgetown. She is survived by daughter Beverly Whatmough and her husband Read, sister Elsie, grandchildren Cathie, Janice, Ken and three great grandchildren. Grandma Burton was and will always be remembered as a loving, strong, devoted and outgoing lady by her family and the many who were lucky enough to know her. She had a beautiful smile and an admirable talent for making friendly conversation with anyone. By her devotion, she raised loving family on her own while leading a professional nursing career. She never hesitated to help someone in need, and has touched many lives. She travelled near and far; her wisdom is never forgotten. She never gave up; thus her spirit, her love and our memory of her will remain with us forever. -written by her grandson Ken.
