

Kinsmen top ball tournament

CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL

This game saw a determined Kinsmen team starting the scoring early as they scored one run in the first, five runs in the second and another one in the third. Great pitching and defence held the S.O.B. off the scoreboard until the sixth when they scored five times, making the score 7-5.

In the bottom half of the inning the determined Kinsmen team scored three times adding to their lead. S.O.B. went down quietly in the seventh giving the Kinsmen a well deserved team championship win. Final score 10-5.

The weather was cold and windy but to the credit of ball players, fans and umpires, it was a great day for baseball. Congratulations to all who participated. Hope to see all players and their wives at the banquet Friday, Sept. 29 at Holy Cross Church hall. All the trophies will be handed out at this time and a good time is usually had by all.

Acton High sports teams have their ups and downs

Acton District High School sports teams had mixed results on two fronts in play Monday.

In Acton the junior boys volleyball team topped Loyola 15-8, 15-13, in the best-of-three match to run their early season record to 2-0.

The Acton senior boys volleyball team was not as fortunate and dropped its best-of-three match to Loyola by identical scores of 15-7, 15-7. The seniors record now drops to 0-2.

The junior girls basketball team journeyed to Oakville for a tilt with Loyola and was humbled 52-12.

According to volleyball coach Ken Ellis the junior team coasted to the first game 15-8 win, then fell asleep in the early going of the second game to fall behind 5-0. The team came alive, however just in time to claim the 15-13 second game win.

Coach Ellis singled out the power-hitting of Brad Thorpe as being mainly responsible for the team's second game rally. Bill Andrews also drew praise for his excellent serving.

The senior team was simply outgunned by Loyola, but in its defence was without Chris Pulford, one of the team mainstays. Pulford was unable to play because of other school commitments.

Junior player Jason Schonpp took Pulford's place and played a strong defensive game.

Both Acton volleyball teams will be in Georgetown Wednesday (today) to challenge the Rebels.

The Acton junior girls basketball team plays host to the GDHS Rebels Wednesday (today).

The basketball and volleyball games are expected to get under way at approximately 3:30 p.m.
