

Youth bowlers on target

Georgetown youth bowling on Saturdays and Sundays is accelerating very rapidly.

After three weeks of bowling, Christopher Somers heads the list with a 248 average. Last Sunday he rolled another 800 triple, an 810.

Christina Lane is increasing her over 200 average with her 642 triple to continue leading all the young ladies.

Having five more seniors join up to swell the competition for the current bowlers, means more fun in the coming festivities. Anyone wishing to enter the weekly 'lucky jackpot' bowl should join now.

Also, the entries for the Senior Mixed Team Championships must be in before Oct. 8.

The bantam division on Saturday mornings at 9 o'clock is also coming to the fore. Matthew Walker, a peewee graduate, is establishing his claim to be the bantam leader with a 513 triple and his first 200 game (206) of the new season.

Looks as if the Georgetown bowlers will again be represented at the provincial championships.

The junior division that bowls at 11:30 a.m. will begin qualifying for the Master-Junior Championships, ending Oct. 15.

To join in the fun, obtain instruction and take part in tournaments, it costs only $7.50 to register and $5 each week for three games of bowling, shoe rental, and creasing etc.

Nitty gritty time looms

Well, it is down to the nitty gritty now. The playing season is almost over. The ladies are finished, the youth are finished, the Falcons are finished and by the time you read this the Inter County semi-finals should be over in both divisions. Monday, in Georgetown and Streetsville the first and second divisions encounters took place.

Cedarvale hosted Mariners vs Crown and Anchor followed by Meteor vs Acton Villa. Syntex, the beautiful new field in Streetsville, hosted the second division games between United and Tam O'Shanter and Trexcon vs Laurentians.

Wednesday, Eagles came within inches of qualifying when missing a last minute chance in front of goal. As it was, they tied Meteor 2-2 but the tie was not enough. From what I can gather Meteor's goals were a little fortunate, a penalty counter and an over the head of the goalie counter. They all count.

In the other first division clash Villa played, to win against Mariners from the start and pulled off a 2-1 win. Villa deserved the result as Mariners were listless until the last 20 minutes when the home team began to take the game to the visitors.

However, Eagles draw meant Mariners were through to the penultimate stage. Crown and Anchor left second place Marlin pointless with a 3-0 result to reach the semis.

Ajax, despite a 6-0 win, just could not make it in the second division playoffs and must be a little disappointed. Milton and Stingers were already eliminated and United join Laurentians and Trexcon and Tam O'Shanter in the semis.

Depending upon results from Monday, this evening (Wednesday) could well see the finals played at Cedarvale at 8:45 and 8:45 respectively. The decision to play so closely is due to one of the semi-finalists having two weddings on the normal Saturday chosen for the finals.

Last week I had a 'go' at the Sunday Sun's Steve Simmons for his inaccuracies in reporting of hooliganism from Britain, and should have been England.

Well, this week it is the turn of radio land's AM 1430 "Talking of Sports." Hosts Bob Macowan and Bill Watters, so normally accurate and informative, with an excellent program were guilty of similar errors.

During last week, whilst mentioning the subject, they alluded to Europe being excluded and talked of Britain's hooligans - they were comparing them with New Yorkers at the time. However, European continental 'fans' are as guilty of vandalism and violence as the English not the Scots, Irish and Welsh, gentlemen.

Gary Morrow opened the scoring for Steelers in the CSL Eastern division two leg final first game in Hamilton. An equalizing goal came from the Blizzard central defender, Carl Fletcher. The goals were all we had in a hard game.

In the second leg, Steelers took an early lead through Alex Bumbury in the third minute. The game had lots of physical challenges, many illegal, and both teams missed out the midfield in build-ups. The game was played at Centennial Stadium, Etobicoke, and the conditions were poor - the field not in good shape.

Morrow received a caution on a 'con' by Peschillo. I felt the referee was a little too fussy and whistle happy, although the game was tousy. Very inconsistent and lots of whistle were the mainstay of the first half with Steelers leading 1-0.

The second half produced no better standard of officiating than the first, I am sorry to report. The play continued to be mainly scrappy. The Steelers went in to a two-goal lead on an offside goal which the ref should have caught and did not.

Blizzard netted on an equally offside goal to even those errors. Steelers had decided to defend at this point and held out for the deserved victory. Morrow himself nodded the ball down to scorer Gasparini for the winner and generally had another steady match.

MATHEW WALKER shows fine bowling form Saturday morning in YBC bantam competition at Georgetown Bowl. Mathew rolled a 513 triple, which included a 206 single. He moved up to bantam competition this year from peewee play. (Herald photo by Donna Kell)
