

Arm broken

Halton Regional Police laid charges of assault causing bodily harm Saturday in connection with a domestic situation occurring this past spring. A 43-year-old Georgetown man allegedly struck a Georgetown woman dislocating her shoulder and breaking her arm. The man appeared at a bail hearing Monday in connection with the charges.

Bounced cheques

A 21-year-old Acton woman allegedly wrote several fraudulent cheques worth a total value of $200 on a closed account recently. Police have laid three charges of fraud in connection with the incident.

House robbery

Police say someone stole $1,100 worth of property and cash from a residence in the area of Sideroad 15 east of Highway 25 in Halton Hills sometime last Thursday.

The culprit stole several items of jewelry, a Super 8 movie camera, an antique camera and $15 in cash. Police say entry was gained through an unlocked rear glass sliding door. An investigation is ongoing.

Watch lifted

Someone stole a $150 watch from a knapsack left in the bleachers area at Georgetown District High School last Thursday afternoon. Police say the owner left the knapsack in the bleachers and when the person returned the watch was gone.

Pouch poached

Police laid charges of theft under $1,000 in connection with the theft of a leather travel pouch from the Olde Hide House in Acton last Thursday. A 60-year-old Toronto man is scheduled to appear in court Oct. 30 in connection with the charge.

Boat motor snagged

Police say someone stole a Mercury 125 horsepower outboard motor valued at $600 from the back of a sail boat parked in the area of Winston Churchill Boulevard and Highway 7 in Norval sometime between Sept. 13 and Sept. 20.

Windows smashed

Police say someone used a large rock to smash two wire glass windows located at the southwest corner of St. Francis of Assisi School on Duncan Street in Georgetown sometime between the morning of Sept. 26 and the next night, police say. Damage is estimated at $200.

Impaired charges

After stopping a 23-year-old Georgetown man who was suspected of impaired driving, police laid charges of possession of narcotics, Friday. Police searched the man and found what was thought to be a marijuana cigarette. A Nov. 13 court date has been scheduled in connection with the incident.

Musical theft

Police laid charges of break and entering and theft after an 18-year-old Georgetown man allegedly used a two-by-four piece of wood to smash the front window of a Guelph Street music store in Georgetown and stole two guitars worth a total value of $900 early last Thursday morning. About $200 damage was caused to the window. Police recovered the guitars later the same day in a nearby backyard. The man is scheduled to appear in court Oct. 30 in connection with the charges.

Man charged

Police laid charges of possession of stolen property after they found a 21-year-old Georgetown man sleeping in the back of a pick-up truck parked in a Guelph Street parking lot in Georgetown early last Thursday morning. Police say the vehicle was stolen in Toronto. An Oct. 30 court date has been scheduled in connection with the incident.

Gas and meat gone

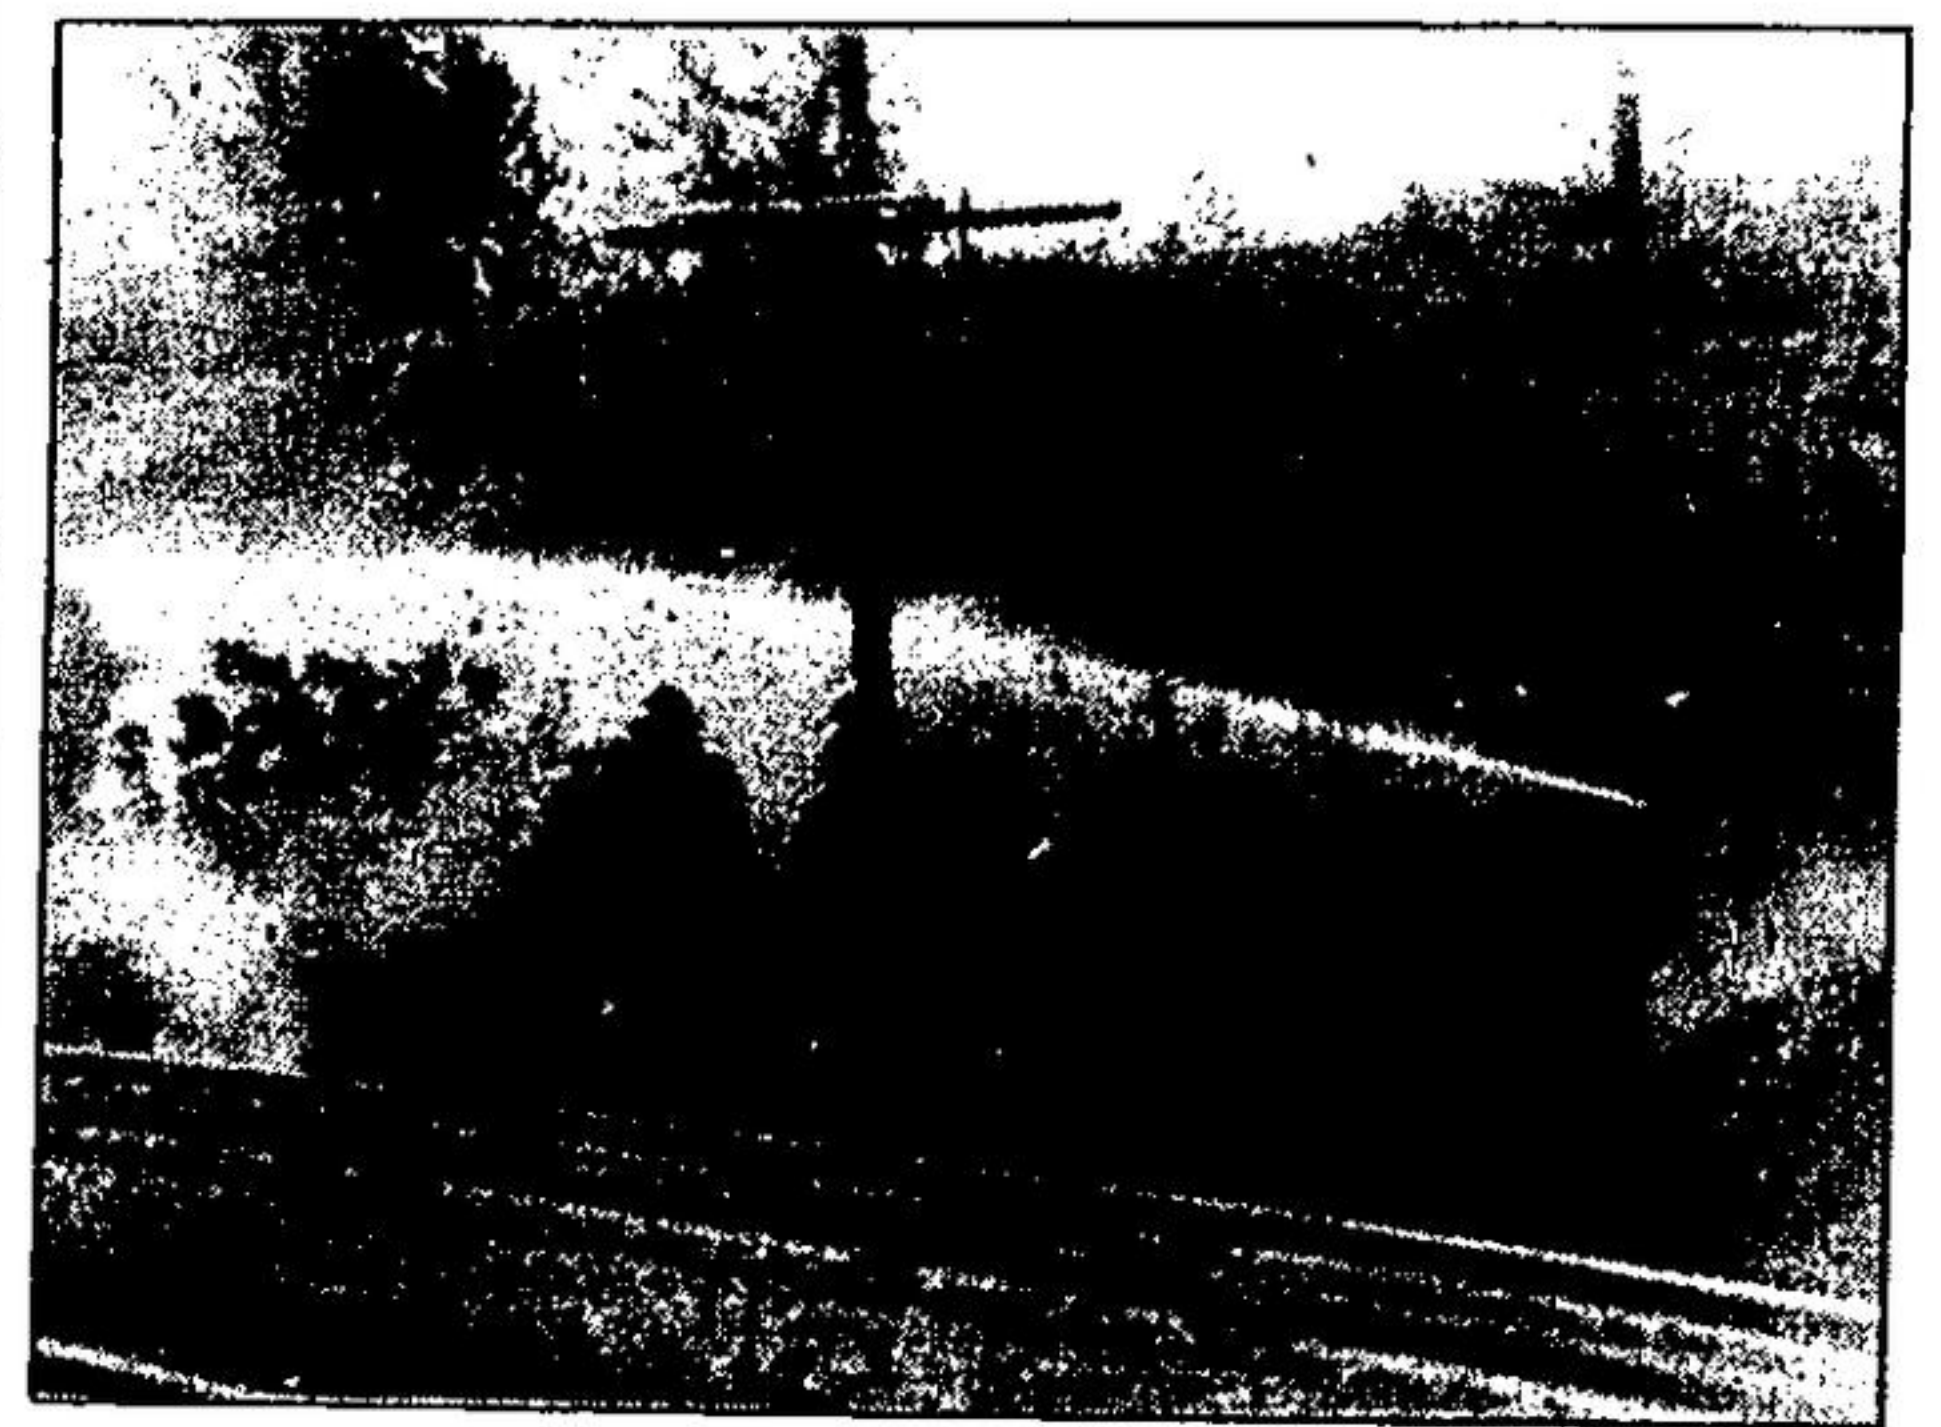

Police say a 45-year-old Campbellville man and a 38-year-old Georgetown man allegedly entered a garage on the Seventh Line in Stewarttown and stole $50 worth of gas and meat early Saturday morning. Charges of break and entering and theft have been laid in connection with the incident. An Oct. 23 court date has been scheduled in connection with the incident.

400 tapes taken

Police say someone stole $300 worth of cassettes from an unlocked 1988 Oldsmobile parked on Longfield Road in Acton sometime Friday. The culprit stole a cassette case containing 400 tapes.

Woman jumps in water dump vehicle follows

A 32-year-old Acton woman suffered minor head and back injuries resulting from an industrial accident in the area of the Town Line north of Mill Street West in Acton late Friday morning, police say. Melody Rhynold was taken by ambulance to Guelph General Hospital. Her current condition is unknown. The general laborer was driving a two-seater dump vehicle up an incline at the Blue Springs Development construction site when the vehicle stalled and began to roll backwards. The vehicle struck a retaining wall and Mrs. Rhynold jumped from the vehicle landing six feet below in a creek. The vehicle flipped over the wall and landed beside the woman, police say.

Grass fire

This grass fire was one of several caused by a passing train in the area of Lot 22 and Concession 6 in Halton Hills Friday afternoon. Flying sparks from the train caused the fire, Halton Hills Fire Department officials say. (Herald Photo)

Brutal assault in Oakville

CRIME STOPPERS

Crime Stoppers of Halton are requesting the public's assistance in solving a brutal assault that has placed a 28-year-old Oakville man in a Toronto Hospital with severe head injuries.

At 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, September 19, 1989 the victim of this assault, Barry Boyce of Oakville, was found unconscious in Unit 6, 1252 Speers Road in Oakville. Mr. Boyce ran a Dickie Dee Ice Cream operation from this unit during the summer.

Mr. Boyce drove a 1987 rental Ford Van, white, with "Snowbird" on the side. Ontario Licence plate number MN7 847.

Mr. Boyce's van had been seen parked in the downtown Hamilton area on the evening of Monday, Sept. 18. It was later stolen sometime prior to Mr. Boyce being found severely beaten. The vehicle was later located near Hanrahan's Tavern in Hamilton. Did you see this vehicle on Sept. 18 or 19?

The victim was known to frequent Taverns and Bars in the Jackson and John Street area of downtown Hamilton.

On the night in question, the victim was believed wearing red track pants, cut off white "T" shirt exposing the stomach and a brown baseball hat with "Richard D's" white and red logo inscribed on it.

Crime Stoppers is asking for anyone with any information on this attempt murder to call.

Do you know the victim or did you see the victim prior to the crime? If so, where and with whom was he associating?
