

Curwood claims Slo-pitch title

By COLIN GIBSON
Herald Sports Editor

New league entry, Curwood Packaging, proved that experience doesn't necessarily count for everything by downing Smith and Stone 17-9 in the Georgetown Inter-Plant Men's Slo-Pitch League playoff championship game played Saturday morning at Limehouse Park.

Fittingly, Smith and Stone had finished in second place during regular league play so that Sunday game featured the cream of the league battling for top honors.

The final score doesn't really in-dicade how close the game really was and the eventual outcome wasn't really settled until the bottom of the sixth inning.

Smith and Stone drew first blood and led 2-0 after the first inning.

Curwood erupted for six runs in the bottom of the third inning to open up what appeared to be a comfortable 9-2 advantage.

Smith and Stone battled back in the top of the fourth inning with six runs and after four full innings of play Curwood had a four-run 12-8 lead.

Basically, that was all she wrote, for Smith and Stone as Curwood hurler, Claude Guignard (who tossed that whole game) effectively frustrated the opposition the rest of the way, allowing only one more Smith and Stone run in the top of the sixth inning.

Curwood touched Smith and Stone pitching for five more runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to put the final seal of approval on the win.

For Curwood, Al Larocque, Joe O'Brien, Jerry Myers, Jay Anderson, Jim Crawford and Claude Johnston each scored a pair of runs.

For Smith and Stone, Paul Gingras and Bill Haynes each scored two runs.
