

Sunny Acres tie

Georgetown Sunny Acres major midgets hockey team got their 1989-90 Tri-County hockey league season off to a satisfying start Sunday afternoon at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, rallying for a 3-3 deadlock with always tough Milton.

For team manager Wayne Pries a win would have been nice, but he was happy to settle for the tie considering recent team problems concerning midget-age player availability.

"I'm quite happy the way things turned out," stated Pries, following the game. "We got a good effort from all the players and you can't ask for much more."

Pries also had praise for the effort put forth by Jake Poulstrup, who played Tier II bantam last year.

Acting coach Dan Guistini, similarly, was pleased with the tie.

He singled out goaltender Paul St. Pierre as deserving of special praise.

Milton opened up a 1-0 first period lead but after 40 minutes of play, the game was tied 2-2.

Milton drew first blood in the final stanza to move in front 3-2 but with less than seven minutes remaining in the game, the Sunny Acres squad rallied for the game-tying score.

Rich Bond, Mark Lorito and Rob Boyle scored the Georgetown goals.

Sunny Acres' next home game is Sunday afternoon, 4 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, against the Milton "B" team.

According to both Pries and Guistini, talks are ongoing with the Junior "B" Raiders to ensure that the major midgets do not find themselves short of players.

Thirteen players dressed for the Sunday game against Milton and it is expected that an additional three players will be added to the team roster.

Sunny Acres bowed 6-3 to Chinguacousy in the team's lone pre-season exhibition game.

The Georgetown team finished second in league play last year to eventual OMHA qualifier Chinguacousy, but did emerge as Tri-County champions.
