

Racquet club invitation

By LARRY SCOTT
Herald Special

In 1972 a small group of local people spurred on by Dr. Boyd Hoddinott, a Georgetown physician, established the Georgetown Racquet Club on 10 acres of beautiful land on the Credit River accessed by Armstrong Avenue.

Today, this club is a vibrant, non-profit, limited share corporation which boasts four squash courts, a viewing gallery, a lounge, men's and ladies' locker rooms, an exercise room, saunas and two flood-lit tennis courts.

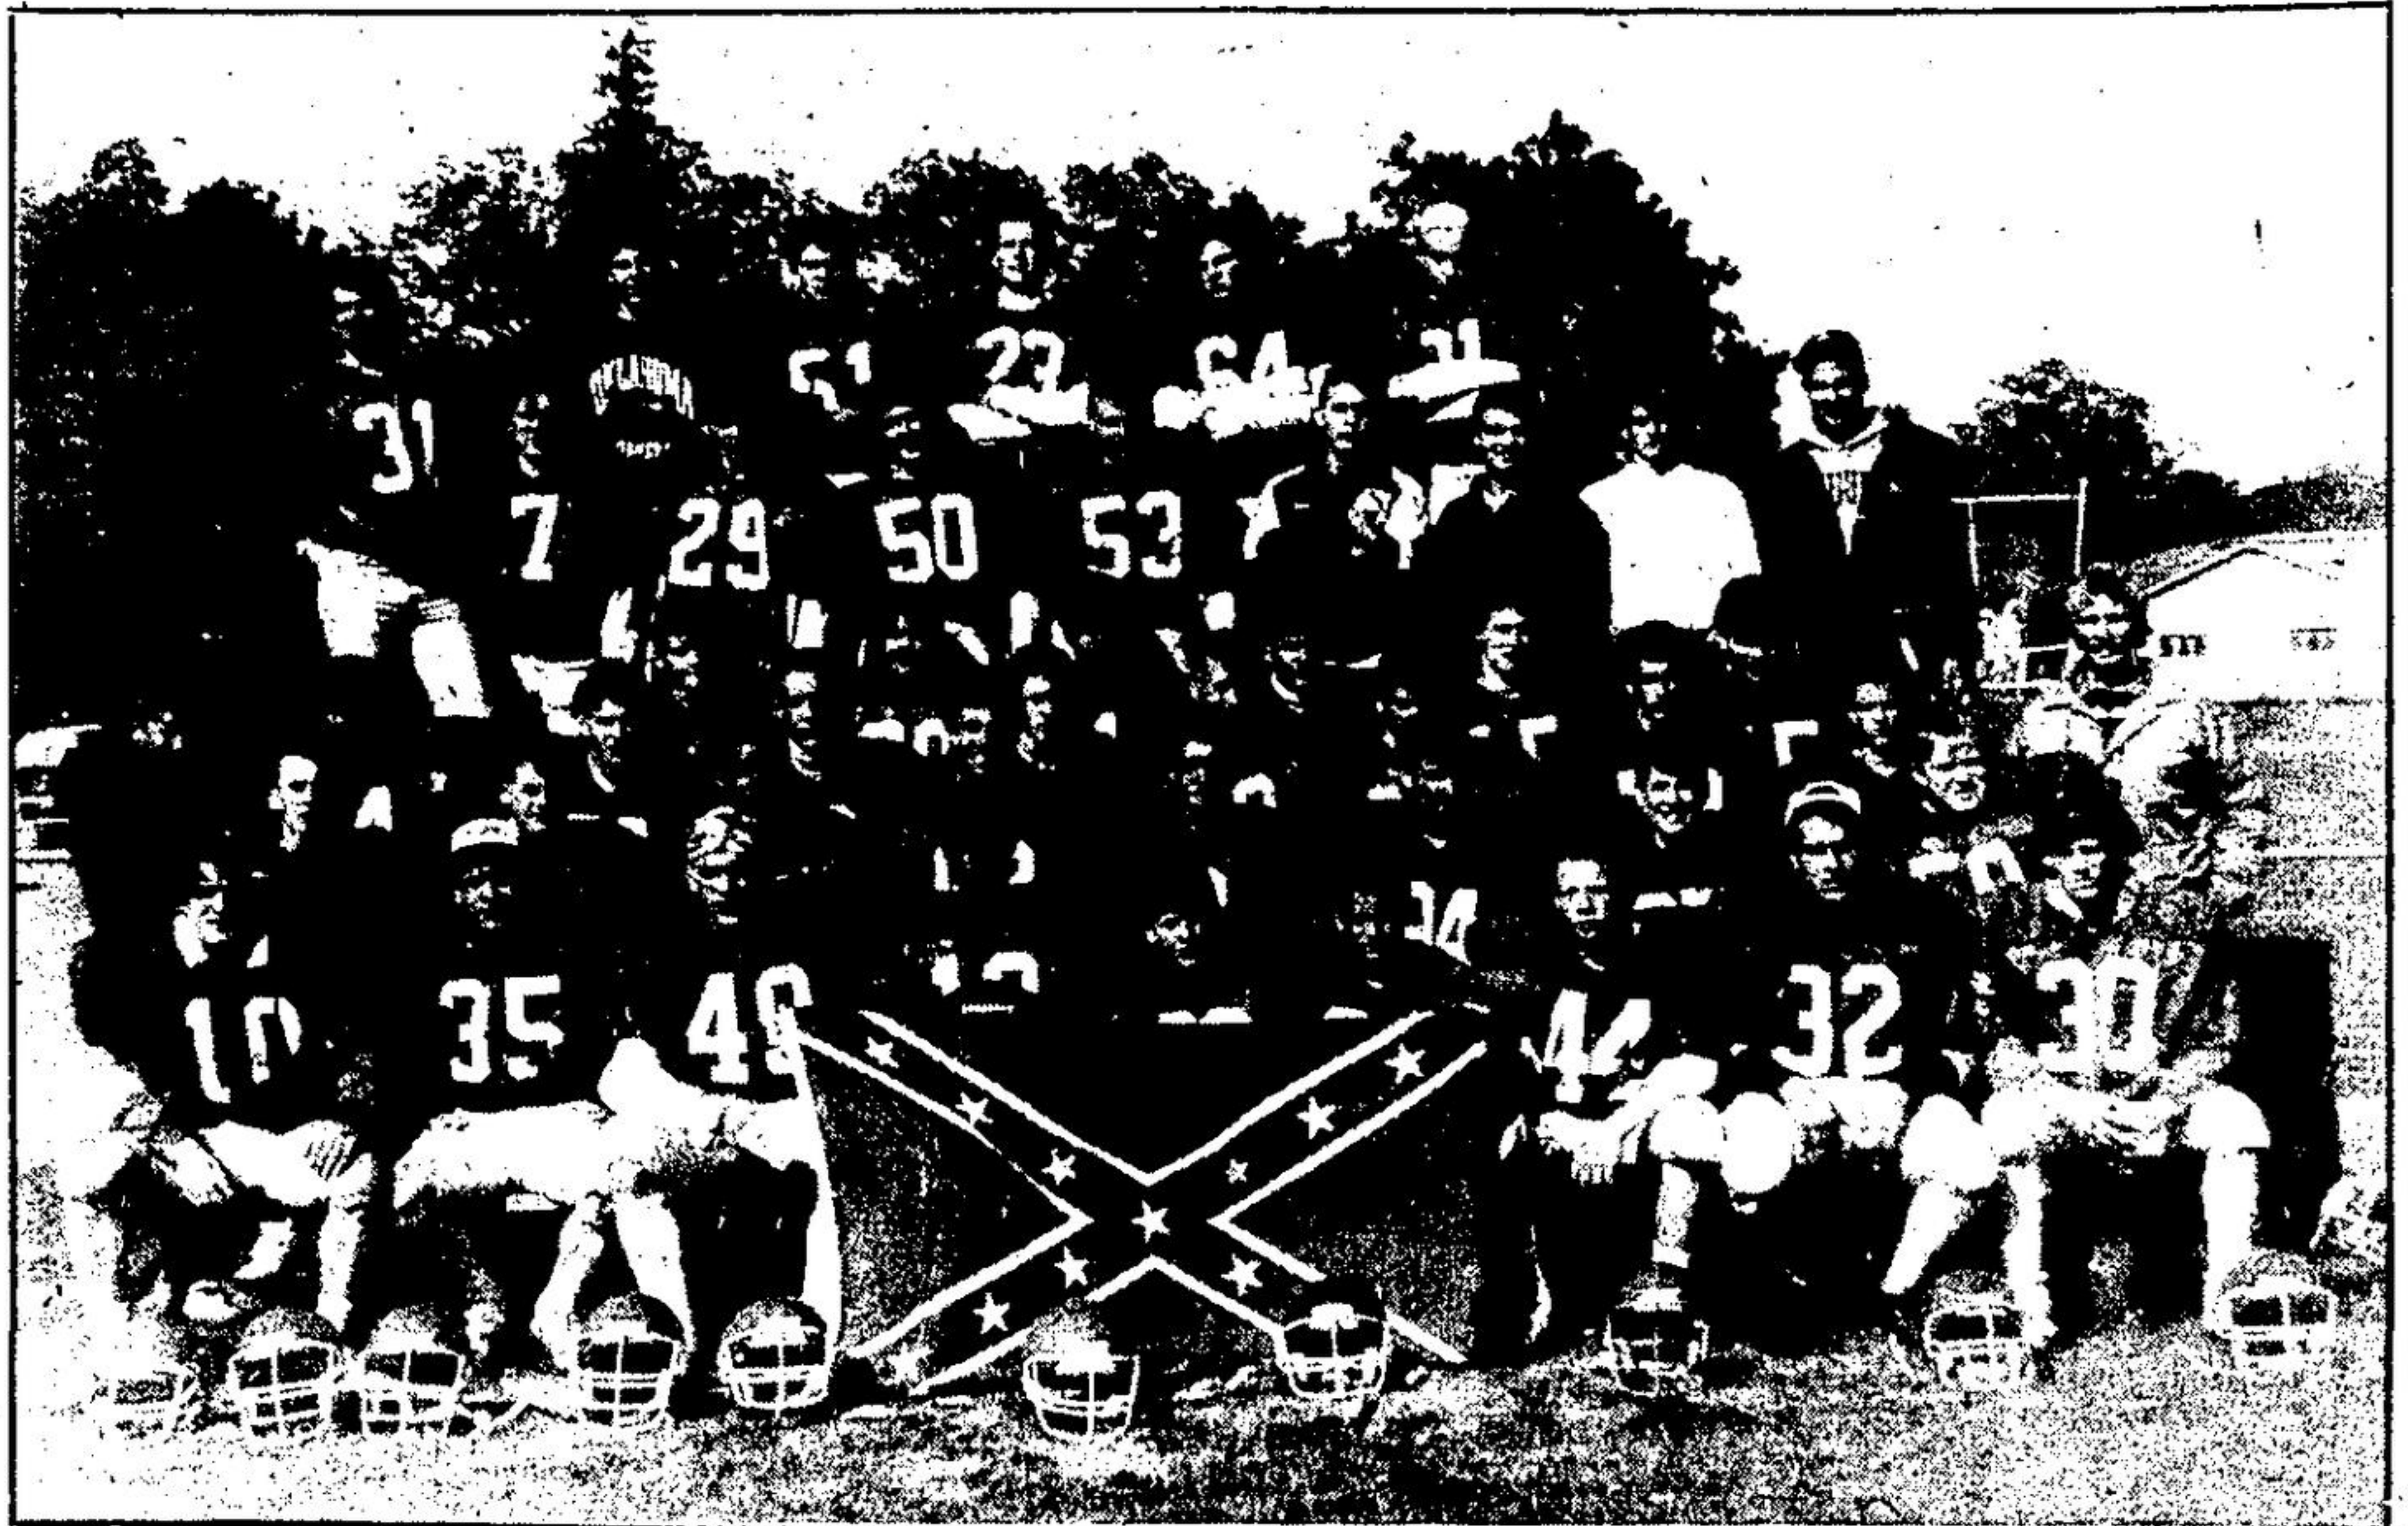

The Racquet Club has continued to exist and grow because of the cooperative attitude of the members. The club is run by an elected board of directors and several committees, all of which are voluntary.

At the recent annual meeting the members elected the following board:

President - Graham Tyler;
Secretary - Myra Britton;
Treasurer - Wayne Pakkala;
Membership - John Platz;
House/Grounds - John Jones; and Squash/Tennis - Barb Johnson, Dean Miller.

The first activity of this season is a Rules and Referees Clinic put on by Squash Ontario this Thursday at 7 p.m.

The general public is welcome to attend the clinic and see our facilities as our guests. For information about the Georgetown Racquet Club, please contact Larry Scott at 877-7026.

C.A.H.A. anniversary

The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association is 75 years old and to help launch a year of celebration what better way than to use the annual general meeting. The Diamond Jubilee theme was consistent throughout the week long meetings held in Ottawa.

The C.A.H.A. has a new Chairman of the Board in Ed O'Doherty of Arvida, Quebec, Frank Libera from Richmond, Ontario moves into the Vice Chairman seat while Jim Kinkley of Etobicoke, Ontario moves to the post of Chairman of Finance. After two years as Chairman Clair Sudsbury from Summerside, P.E.I. will now fill the role as Past Chairman.

Turning to the Chairman of the different age categories of hockey, Art O'Bryan from Nelson, B.C., enters his fifth year as Chairman of Senior Hockey while Howie Stevenson starts his third term as Chairman of Junior Hockey. The new rookie on the block is Joe Richard of Rothesay, N.B. who moves in the hot seat as Chairman of Minor Hockey.

You will require a line-up roster to identify the directors as four of the five chairs have new faces in them. The only returning Director is the Hockey Development's Director Bill MacGillivray from Fredericton, N.B. The province of P.E.I. will be well represented around the directors table with Gord Lund of Sherwood sitting as Director of the Junior Council and Harry McConnell from Georgetown filling the Senior Council chair.

The Director of Minor Hockey comes from Regina, Sask., in the person of George Watson while the new Female Council Director is Fran Rider of Mississauga, Ontario.

The major highlight of the 75th Anniversary of the C.A.H.A. was a gala black-tie awards banquet that was held to honour some key individuals from the past.

As usual the prestigious Order of Merit award winners took precedent; the four winners all have been very active in hockey for over thirty years. The western winner was Ed Boychuk a past president of the S.A.H.A., the Ontario winner was Alfred Taylor of North Gower a former director of the C.A.H.A. in 1968-69. Marcel Robert was the Quebec winner; Marcel served as vice-president of the C.A.H.A. from 1975 to 1977. The Maritime region winner was Bill Ledwell from Charlottetown, P.E.I. Bill served as the very first chairman of Minor Hockey in P.E.I. from 1971 to 1974.

The 1989 recipient of the Gordon Jukes Award for his outstanding contribution to the development of amateur hockey went to the C.A.H.A.'s past Vice-President of technical Dennis McDonald. Dennis spent 15 years with the C.A.H.A. devoting his energies to bettering hockey in Canada before heading to the Winnipeg Jets organization as their Assistant General Manager.

The Canadian Airlines International Volunteer of the Year Award was presented to Alex "Moe" Irving of Thunder Bay, Ontario. Moe has been actively involved in minor hockey for over 30 years and has been instrumental in helping to develop many of the top hockey players coming out of the Thunder Bay region.

In this the "Year of the Coach" two special coaching awards were presented, one for High Performance and the other for Competitive/Recreational. Clare Drake from Edmonton, Alberta captured the High Performance while Stan Butler of Toronto took home the Competitive/Recreational Award.

One of the highlights that brought the audience immediately to their feet was the introduction of the members of the 1948 Ottawa Flyers Hockey team that won the Gold Medal at the Winter Olympics in St. Moritz, Switzerland.
