Top teams settling into consistent, solid rhythm

MONDAY HALTON LEAGUE
The top teams are beginning to settle down into a rhythm of solid and consistent play. Time Out I and McGibbon lads each scored 12 points and Copper Kettle A scored 10 points.

Both Copper Kettle teams are relative unknown quantities as the players are mostly new to the league. O'Tooles II and Station House, for which there is no result at time of typing, are players from the teams of last season not taking part. There are a few personnel changes in the returning squads from the remaining teams.

Time Out I retain the outright lead for the moment with the win at Kaspers, where the home team improved on last week's showing. McGibbon lads move into second place following their victory at Copper Kettle B. Kettle A and O'Tooles I are third and fourth respectively.

Time Out II and O'Tooles I looked like having a close match through the singles with an even split of the eight games. Time Out took the first doubles and O'Tooles took the rest of the games for a 9-5 win.

the scoring leaders. Picking out the highlights is, or should be, an easy task. Shortage of proper game sheets and late handing in causes a problem to this writer. A correction to last week - Helen Reid stays with O'Tooles and has not moved to McGibbon as I indicated, my error.

Ian McDonald recorded a high finish of 102 and Ron Scarlett one of 101. Scarlett also shot 140 and other 140s were recorded by several players, including Joe Cairns, Jim Carter, Dan Engleby, Gary Rodda, Roger Newman, Joyce Marrows and Larry Varey. However, the highest score came from the arrows of, and thrown by, Peter Conway. Brian Beaumont, Roger Armstrong and Ian Cooper each shot over the 130 qualifying mark for extra points, as did Terry Stray.

WEDNESDAY INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

First division leaders, Snow-jacks Hustlers, took another step forward in defeating Exports by 8-1, Ron Scarlett hitting a couple of 140s. Pete Pickering fired in a maximum (180) and 140 in reply. Gasketman Cutters remain second after winning 9-0 over Bulldogs, who only had three players on the night. Russ Curtis had a start of 108 and Don Eady one of 97 in the match. High Rollers and Acadian Pools had an even split during the first four games before Pools took three in a row to set up a 5-4 win. Derek Hedley, Hunter Carroll and Terry Hancock all scored over the ton twice.

Mike Finn shot 140 and 120 with Bruce Stevens and Glen Monaghan scoring tons. Ensigns and Steeprock both had full turn outs of players and Ensigns pulled off a 6-3 win, only losing the first and then last two games. Roy Rudiger, 140 and Harry Bottoms, 134 were high scorers. Paul Kirby fired in a 140 and Marty Wheeler shot, 138 and 112. Golden Flights 1-8 loss to third place Westenders rounded off the evening. Dennis Thorogood shot 137, 120 and 100 and Al-Murphy 125.
