McNally Construction struggling early

Georgetown's McNally Construction Minor Novice Rep team is off to a slow start this season. After three games, they are still waiting for their first win.

On Oct. 8 in the first game of the season in Flamboro, Matthew Hotham, assisted by Derek Buckton and Jason Campbell, scored Georgetown's only goal.

Flamboro tallied seven goals of their own, defeating the Minor Novices 7-1.

The second game, at Georgetown Memorial Arena, was again disappointing for the team. Visiting Milton scored eight times in the game, with Georgetown answering back only twice.

In the final minutes of the second period, Jason Campbell scored an unassisted power play goal. Toward the end of the third period, Matthew Hotham scored Georgetown's second and final goal. He was assisted by Mark MacInnes and Scott Ellis.

Sunday, the McNally Construction Minor Novices again came up short, losing to Chinguacousy 4-1.

Mark MacInnes scored Georgetown's lone goal early in the game unassisted. The rest of the game remained close thanks to the good goaltending by Tyler Pearce.

Keep up the hard work boys. You're due for a win.
