Herald Special

Georgetown Little Theatre is happy to welcome newcomer Shiona Watson. Hailing originally from Scotland, this is Shiona's first role with the little theatre, but she is no stranger to the stage, having appeared in numerous productions in Britain.

GLT's production of The Second Time Around is a comedy, dealing with what is fast becoming a popular theme - the generation gap.

Shiona views her role as 'challenging' since she is required to play a woman some years her senior (we won't say how many years!), and when asked how she prepared for such a challenge she replied, "Living with my grandmother for about 28 years!" (No offence, grandmas - Shiona simply views it as a slice of life.)

Joining Shiona in the cast are Ron Hunt, Lois Fraser, Ashley Windsor, Sam Hancock, John Carter, Joan Andrews and Michelle Rouillard.

The Second Time Around will be presented at the John Elliott Theatre on Oct. 20 and 21, and 25, 26, 27 and 28. Curtain time is 8 p.m. and tickets are available at Royal LePage, 170 Guelph Street, Georgetown, or call the Box Office at 877-3700.

TODAY'S BARBS BY PHIL PASTORET

There's one nice thing about the weeks before election day. Tattered posters from a previous election get covered with new ones.

Though there are no figures to prove it, the making of mistakes these days must top the list of growth industries.
