We wish to offer thanks to our many friends, acquaintances and associates for their caring and loving support during this time of tragic loss. We, Robert's family, are deeply appreciative of the help and kindness of so many individuals in recent weeks.

Special thanks are extended to the Glen Williams Town Hall Committee and to those who provided the luncheon after the Memorial Service. Thanks also to those at the Georgetown Hospital, Jones Funeral Home and Halton Region Police for their sensitive caring.

We are very grateful for the spiritual leadership provided by Reverends Barrow and Eason. Robert is profoundly missed, and comfort comes from knowing he is in the loving hands of God.
