

Police Beat

Assault charges

Halton Regional Police laid charges of assault and robbery following two incidents involving a Georgetown youth Sunday.

In the first incident, a 15-year-old girl allegedly pushed and slapped the face of another girl, also 15, as she was entering a Mountainview Road Bowling alley in Georgetown Sunday afternoon. Later that night at Club 2000 in Norval the same 15-year-old allegedly stole a gold ring and gold charm worth a total value of $800 from the girl, police say she had assaulted earlier in the day.

$200 damage

Someone slashed two tires causing $200 damage to a 1989 Ford pick-up truck parked outside a Mill Street East hotel in Acton late Saturday night, police say.

Man staggering

Police laid charges of being intoxicated in a public place after observing a 43-year-old Acton man staggering at the corner of Mill and Main Street in Acton, Saturday night.

Mischief charges

Police say a 15-year-old Georgetown girl allegedly went out of control and tore a door off its hinges at a Georgetown residence after consuming a quantity of alcohol early Monday morning. Charges of mischief were laid in connection with the incident.

Jewellery stolen

Someone stole $14,500 worth of jewellery and other property from a Lot 17 and Concession 7 area residence in Georgetown sometime Friday morning. Police say the culprit kicked in a rear door, and stole jewellery from an upstairs bedroom, including some Royal Dalton figurines from the living room and a mink coat from a hallway closet.

ACCIDENTS
and/or
TRAFFIC TICKETS

Protect Your Insurance Rates and Demerit POINTS

Former Police Officer will defend you in court
Free Consultation
873-1898

"ATTENTION"
Bird Lovers
Sunflower Seeds
• Stripes
• Blacks

Discounts on large quantities.
Lyonsdale Farms
838-3550 or
838-2689
8 Km. North of Hwy No. 7
on Mississauga Rd. Ghellenham
Watch for Signs!

Windows broken

Police say a 29-year-old Erin man punched and broke two glass windows causing $50 damage to a Guelph Street tavern in Georgetown after being asked to leave the premises for rowdy behavior early Friday morning. Charges of mischief were laid following the incident and a Nov. 20 court date was scheduled.

Narcotics charges

Police laid charges of possession of narcotics after pulling over a vehicle for a traffic violation on Duncan Drive early Sunday morning, when police pulled over the vehicle, driven by a 19-year-old Georgetown man, they saw what appeared to be a marijuana cigarette in the ashtray. After searching the car police found 10.5 grams of a substance that is suspected to be hashish.

Minor injuries

A 19-year-old Georgetown man was taken by ambulance to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital and treated for minor injuries following a traffic accident on John Street in Georgetown, Sunday evening. Police say the man was riding a bicycle eastbound when he attempted to stop for a 1983 Datsun, driven by a 49-year-old Georgetown woman, that was pulling out of a driveway. The bicycle went out of control and the man landed in a ditch. Charges of improper bicycle lighting were laid following the incident.

Two-car collision

Police laid charges of not giving the right of way following a two-car collision on Mountainview Road South of Guelph Street in Georgetown last Thursday evening. Police say a 1985 Impala driven southbound by a 65-year-old Georgetown man without its headlights on collided with a 1985 Honda that was backing out of a driveway. An 18-year-old Glen Williams man was driving the Honda.

Charges laid

Police laid charges of going through a red light following a two-car collision on Trafalgar Road at Steeles Avenue in Georgetown, early Friday morning. Police say a 20-year-old Georgetown man travelling northbound in a 1988 GMC failed to stop for a red light and collided with a 1987 Plymouth travelling westbound. A 57-year-old Georgetown man was driving the Plymouth.

Two-car accident

Charges of following too closely were laid following a two-car collision on Mountainview Road South at Delrex Boulevard in Georgetown, Friday morning. Police say a 1986 Toyota driven southbound by a 29-year-old Etobicoke man collided with the rear end of a 1985 Buick. The Buick was stopped at a stop sign at the time of the accident.

Two treated

A 27-year-old Georgetown man and a 27-year-old Toronto woman were taken by ambulance to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital and treated for minor injuries following a two-car collision on the Ninth Line and Sideroad 10 in Georgetown last Thursday afternoon. Police say the woman was driving a 1983 Toyota when the vehicle collided with a 1988 Ford that was stopped at the intersection. The Georgetown man was driving the Ford. The Toyota was severely damaged, police say. Charges of failing to stop were laid following the accident.

Girl beaten with a fire iron

Halton Regional Police charged a 16-year-old Milton youth with attempted murder after a 13-year-old Bramalea girl was nearly beaten to death with a tire iron Saturday after she was picked up in Norval, Saturday night.

The girls received blows to her head and body. She is currently being treated for compound fractures to the skull, multiple lacerations to the head, bruises and abrasions to the back and a compound fracture to the right hand.

Police say the girl was with a friend in Norval when they met three youths. The Bramalea girl left with the three and they drove to Milton. Two of the youths got out of the car at that time. Police say a youth told the girl he would take her to a "bush party" in the area of Appleby Line south of Derry Road in Burlington. When they arrived at this location, the two walked through a corn field and into a wooded area where the beating took place. The attacker then left the scene, police say.

The girl staggered to the road and flagged down a car whose driver took her to Milton District Hospital, where she received initial treatment.

Police fire shot

On Oct. 11, 1989 at approximately 0255 hours an officer of the Halton Regional Police Force observed a suspicious vehicle eastbound on New Street in Burlington. The officer checked the licence plate and found that the vehicle had been stolen from Toronto.

The suspect vehicle was occupied by two non-white males and one white male in their late teens or early twenties.

The vehicle and occupants sped away from the officer on to the Queen Elizabeth Way and then on to the 403 cutoff. The vehicle left the roadway in Peel Region and the suspects fled on foot into a wooded area.

A member of the Halton Regional Police fired a shot at the suspect vehicle.

The suspects are still at large. The incident is being investigated by Detective Sergeant Ted Waller, Professional Standards Bureau and Detective J.A. Chapman, Major Crime Bureau.

CRIME STOPPERS

OF HALTON

The Royal Canadian Legion
Together... We Will Remember

CHANGE IN LEGISLATION AFFECTING PENSIONS ACT

Dependants or survivors (widow or widower, children) or others who have had pensions terminated upon marriage or remarriage may be eligible for resumption of benefits. For information, contact the Branch Service Officer at Branch 120, Buster Hale 877-4413, or The Department of Veterans Affairs Canada, 37 George St. North, Brampton, 451-4630.

J.T. HAYES, Branch 120 P.R.O.

The Royal Canadian Legion

Lt. Col. G. B. S. Cousens Branch No. 120
127 Mill Street
GEORGETOWN, ONTARIO, L7G 2C7

POPPY FUND REPORT

OCT. 1/88 - SEPT. 30/89

The poppy campaign is the Legion's moment of truth; unless it succeeds, all the high-sounding ideals surrounding Legion work are nothing but empty words.

The campaign must be measured by its effectiveness in promoting Remembrance and by the amount of money it raises to help needy ex-service personnel and their dependants.

The funds provide financial assistance to needy Canadian ex-service personnel and Merchant Navy personnel possessing or eligible for campaign stars or decorations, and their dependants. Also eligible are ex-service personnel of other Commonwealth and Allied countries, now resident in Canada.

Poppy Trust Funds as of Sept. 30/89	$31,188.93
Amount collected in 1988 Campaign	$ 6,201.08
Disbursements - Oct. 1/88 to Sept. 30/89	$ 2,031.19
Total cost of Poppies, Promotional material, campaign expenses etc. 1988	$ 2,098.95
Total cost of Wreaths 1988	$ 1,907.91

Jean M. Narey
Poppy Chairman

Hank Russell
Br. 120 President

Learn to Drive... and Survive

WITH
Young Drivers of Canada

NEXT CLASS TO START

WED., NOV. 8th

Wed. & Thurs. Evenings
7:00 - 10:08 for 4 Weeks

16 Mountainview Rd. S., Georgetown

FOR BRAMPTON OR BRAMALEA
CALL 459-0417

YOUNG DRIVERS PROGRAM IS NOT AVAILABLE THROUGH ANY LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

877-0751

OVER 300,000 GRADUATES RECOMMEND

YOUNG DRIVERS OF CANADA

