Sunny Acres Farms scaling league heights

By COLIN GIBSON

Georgetown's Sunny Acres Farms major midget hockey team ran its early-season Tri-County Hockey League record to a sparkling 5-0-1 with a pair of wins over the weekend.

Saturday evening the Sunny Acres crew travelled to Victoria Park Arena for a clash with Chinguacousy and survived a chippy, reportedly brutally-officiated game, by skating away with a 4-2 win.

Sunday afternoon in the friendlier confines of Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, the Sunny Acres squad turned back Orangeville 5-3.

Georgetown had faced Chinguacousy in the team's only pre-season exhibition and with an undermanned roster, came out on the short end of a 6-3 score.

This apparently was not the only score to be settled and inconsistent and questionable officiating only served to further fray already short tempers.

Two Sunny Acres players, Mitch Butt and Gord Burke, were ejected from the game, as was coach Charlie Hanman. Hanman was not behind the bench for the winning effort over Orangeville Sunday afternoon.

Chinguacousy enjoyed a 1-0 lead after the first period, but then the Georgetown gunners made adjustments to their sights and took control of the game.

Sunny Acres led 2-1 after two periods and enjoyed a 4-1 lead before Ching notched a late-game goal to run the final count to 4-2 in Georgetown's favor.

Mitch Butt, Mark Lorito, Brad Tutt and Rob Boyle scored for Georgetown. Tutt collected an assist on Mitch Butt's opening Georgetown marker.

Defenceman Eric Long collected three assists, with other assists going to Gord Burke, Rich Bond, Jake Poustrup and Trevor Elinesky.

The tough Chinguacousy encounter might have taken something out of the Sunny Acres team as it took awhile for Georgetown to get untracked against Orangeville, Sunday afternoon at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

Sunny Acres led 1-0 after the first period, but the game was knotted 1-1 heading into the final stanza.

The hometown favorites awoke with a vengeance in the final stanza, outscoring Orangeville 4-2, to lay proper claim to the 5-3 win.

Rich Bond paced the Georgetown attack, with two goals and an assist. Single Sunny Acres goals were netted by Rob Lang, Rob Boyle and Mark Lorito.

Other Georgetown assists went to Mark McIntyre, Brad Amato, Mark Lorito, Trevor Elinesky, Sean Guistini, Eric Long and Jake Poustrup.

The Sunny Acres squad will have a bit of a break this week, with just one game scheduled.

Saturday, 5:30 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, Sunny Acres faces a challenge from Stoney Creek "P"

M and M bantams thump Dundas, 9-4

Thursday Dundas came to town for their first encounter of the year and found a tenacious Georgetown Bantam team hungry for their first win of the year.

It was all Georgetown for the first period with the locals going ahead 3-0 on goals by Tim Presswood, Mike Large and Jake Mashinter with assists to Derick Ellard, Shaun Curry, Brent Couling and Steve Wright.

M and M's extended their lead going into the second when Mark David scored at the 13:27 mark, assisted by Ellard with his second point of the night.

Dundas staged a small rally getting two quick goals while Georgetown was shorthanded but the locals stretched their lead again when Shaun Pearson finished off a nice three-way passing play from Wright and Dave Osborne.

Dundas came back less than a minute later with another shorthanded goal but Presswood got it back with his second of the night 14 seconds later when Dustin Thompson fed him a pinpoint pass in front of the net. Dundas made a final effort to stay in the game with a goal late in the second period. But the third period belonged to Georgetown Bantams.

The prettiest goal of the night was a three-way passing play from Ellard and Presswood with Dustin Thompson doing the old spinnerama to pop it in. Two more unassisted goals from Steve Wright and Chris Barrow finished the game with M and M Pro Sports 9, Dundas 4.

"We needed this win," said coach Wright. "We have been playing well enough to win all but one of our games so far and were getting a little tired of being bridesmaids. Our commitment to disciplined team play paid off in spades tonight with some very nice three-way passing goals. Our team is just starting to show its potential and I hope we can keep it up on Sunday when Stoney Creek comes to town. They're on top of the league right now and will give us our toughest game to date I'm sure."

Sunday saw exactly that, their toughest game of the young season. Stoney opened the scoring late in the first period with Georgetown tying it up early in the second when Chris Barrow scored assist going to Steve Wright.

Then Stoney opened it up with three unanswered goals in the second to make it 4-1 Stoney.

It wasn't until late in the third that Georgetown got on the scoreboard again when Barrow put his second of the night in, assists again to Wright and Jake Mashinter.

"We knew they were going to be tough," said coach John Wight. "We played well but this night they were just the better team." Next home game for the M and M Pro Sports Bantams is Sunday at 2:30 p.m. when they play Streetsville.

TOTAL TEAM EFFORT has paid huge dividends for Georgetown Sunny Acres Farms midget hockey team in the early going of their 1989-90 Tri-County Hockey League season. Sunny Acres boasts a 5-0-1 record after six games. Saturday, 5:30 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, the Sunny Acres team plays host to Stoney Creek "B". (Herald photo by Brian MacLeod)

Racquet club league underway

The Georgetown Racquet Club held a very successful Rules Clinic last week, put on by Dave Tullis from Squash Ontario. Now, at least 30 members know the rules and how and when to call a "let."

The men's fall house league got into full swing on Monday night. All 48 players were scheduled to play.

The socializing that went on after the matches indicates that this should be an enjoyable and competitive season.

The team captains are Steve Sage, Garry Kirkpatrick, Keith Smith, Bob Cripps, Jon Lynne-Davies.

The men's and ladies' inter-club teams began action this week as well.

Tuesday night (Oct. 17) the ladies C team travelled to Curzon's Sporting Club where Audrey Jans won 3-0; Sandy Lewis fought back to win her match in the fifth game; Jan Cook and Janet Schandelmeier lost their matches 0-3; Marg Hertz lost 3-1.

The men's D team visited Applewood and young Keith Smith won 3-1; Doug Farrugan won 3-0; Bob Marchand and Chris Arnesen lost 0-3; Bill Voisin playing his first inter-club match rallied from a 0-2 score to lose in overtime in the fifth game.

Murray, Audrey and Melanie

Jans had a house full of extra squash players this week as they billeted three of the top European female squash players who were competing in the Judy Travis International Tournament in Toronto.

The Georgetown Racquet Club is always interested in obtaining new members and now it is offering a special corporate membership for week-day play. For information please contact Larry Scott at 877-7028.

Finally, remember the first commandment of squash... Thou shalt not talk down the wall.

Duplicate bridge

George Sargeant and Jack Kaarsemaker were the Number One winners in Duplicate Bridge play this week at Georgetown Branch 120 Royal Canadian Legion.

Harry Arbic and Mike Loruso were the Number Two winners, while Pat and George Farrow claimed the Number Three winners spot.

Duplicate Bridge get-togethers are held every Monday afternoon at the Georgetown Legion located on Mill Street.
