

Canadian team bang on target for gold

I trust you, or some anyway, managed to see the World Darts finals from Toronto on CBC last Saturday. Canada came in first in the four man teams to earn the gold medal, with Bob Sinnaeve of Ontario leading. England won the pairs and singles with John Lowe and Eric Bristow, Bristow winning the singles championship for the fifth in a row, and United States taking the ladies singles.

The popularity of darts over in this continent continues to grow and the Skyline hosted one of the biggest turnouts for this type of competition to date.

MONDAY HALTON LEAGUE

Time Out I just managed to scrape through by two points against O'Tooles away from home. TO I were shorthanded with seven players available, Brian Beaumont having several broken ribs at the other game with a weapon. The singles were even, then TO I took three doubles and a team game for the win, and it was a hard slog throughout.

Jeff Richardson, with a 180 and 160 threw sharp all night long and was ably supported by Rick Harden, 140, 140. Ron Scarlett replied with four 140s, Dan Fraser, two, and self with two.

Last week's big game between Time Out II and Copper Kettle A was not quite repeated. Kettle A came out on top with another two point win.

In similar fashion to the above report, the singles were tied, As taking the first four and TO II taking the last four. Encouragingly the first double went to TO II then the bottom fell in for a while, the next three going to Kettle A. The teams were divided to end the match.

Marilynn Lovell shot an excited 180, Peter Conway finished on 105 and there were four 140s on the board. Kettle B and Station House turned in their game sheet on time for a nice change and it follows an exciting battle with neither team winning, therefore a tie, 7-7. The teams are in the lower half of the standings and they both worked hard in this match.

Jon Brown had three high scores, Paul Mosseau and Paul Sargent each had one.

Gary Rolfe and Mike Pepper were the high scorers as Kaspers and O'Tooles I met in their return match. The visitors came out with the win by 11-3, which speaks for itself.

McGibbon lads took all 14 points from the ladies and clinically ensured the victory. Hugh Smid closed on a high 112 and there were high scores from three other lads.

WEDNESDAY INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

League leading Snowjacks Hustlers sniped away at the Bulldogs and had to fight to take the first three games on the way to victory by 7-2. Joe Cairns was the leader with four starts and three closes, Rod Beaumont opened with 103.

Dogs fought hard and did not take their chances when they came along. Jay Bishop and Dave Robinson each scored 121 in the losing effort. Gasketman Cutters are the latest team to keep Golden Flights at the foot of division one, this time by 8-1.

Jeff Richardson was top man with two starts and three closes and a couple of high scores. Russ Curtis supported well with a 2-2 showing. All four Flights tried hard with all scoring high and Russ Deigle opening three.

Westenders remain third following their 7-2 result over Ensigns. Dennis Thorogood began five games, one with 116 and also scored two over the tin. Ray Ackroyd assisted with a 2-2 effort. Harry Bottoms began four for Ensigns.

Steepprock have improved in recent weeks and now lie in fifth place. The team played steadily to defeat Acadian Pools by 7-2. Paul Kirby had four starts and two closes. Ian McDonald having 2-3. Mike Finn opened three and Glen Monaghan two for Pools. Exports went down by the odd game to High Rollers after trailing for the most part.

Pete Pickering opened with 100 and shot 140 twice and John Mills closed out 125. Jim Charter had four starts and Terry Hancock opened with 92.

Second division Independents received a 9-0 walk over on Rebels who did not have enough players. Independents move into third place as a result. There are several movements from last week's standings. Panthers find themselves in the lead after beating Taxmen 6-3. Paul Kavanagh had two starts and three closes, one a bull close out. Cam Levers opened five, one of 120.

Aces dropped into second spot following their 8-1 win over Bandits. Steady, if unspectacular performances from the winners was enough to do the trick, Art Cousins began five, closed one and had two high scores.

Inter-County fall to fourth in losing the odd game to Firemen. Ace Bailey opened two and Gord Inglis finished two, Ron Corbett did both and Vic Lovell opened with 103. Power of Pain beat off the Outlaws by 6-3 and Mr. T-Bone Perkins again makes the news with three starts and a finish. Ross Hoop opened three and closed one, Keith Mallette opened with 83.
