IN MEMORIAM
PARKER, Harold James. In loving memory of my dear father, who passed away Oct. 22nd, 1981.

This month comes back with sad regret, it brings back a day I'll never forget, A golden heart stopped beating, Two working hands at rest. God has proved to me that he only takes the best.

Although I smile and seem carefree, No one could miss you more than me. God knows how much I miss you He wipes the tears I shed, And whispers soft but clear to me, He only sleeps your dad, He is not dead.

The things we feel most deeply, Are the hardest things to say. Dear Dad I love you so, And I pray to God to let you know.

Please keep your arms around him Lord, And give him special care. Make up for all he suffered And all that seemed unfair.

Oh dad, to have one lifetime wish To have one dream come true, I'd pray to God with all my heart For yesterday and you.

But every day in some small way Memories of you come my way, And in my heart you will forever stay.

So all of you who have your Dads Cherish him with care, For you'll never know the heartache Till the day he isn't there. Till we meet again Lovingly remembered, and forever with me, your daughter Cindy and family.
