

CRIME STOPPERS

OF HALTON

Crime Stoppers of Halton and the Halton Regional Police are asking for the public's help in solving the theft of a Ford (tractor) truck and 40 foot trailer and its contents from the locked compound of a transport company in Oakville.

Some time between Oct. 15-16, 1989 a Ford truck and trailer, with a 40 ft. shipping container attached to the trailer, containing 7,296 stuffed toys, was stolen from the locked compound of Garfield Transport located at 1143 Invieta Road in Oakville.

The stolen items are described as follows:

-A 1978 Ford tractor, blue, lic. T05266, Ontario 1989 issue, VIN U91VUAH0825;

-A 1987 STRICK trailer white in color VIN IS2GC402HB657151; this trailer will have "K Line Chassis" on the side with serial number KKKLC100432.

Pair suffer major injuries

Charges of impaired driving causing bodily harm, and driving without a license or seatbelt were laid after a 1988 Dodge went out of control leaving the road and striking several trees at Winston Churchill Boulevard and Old Pine Crescent in Halton Hills late Thursday night. The vehicle's

Truck, 7,300 stuffed toys stolen in Oakville

Attached to the above tractor chassis is a 40 foot shipping container, red in color with the name "K Line" on the sides. Serial KLFU1106914. This shipping container contained 7,296 stuffed toys with a value of $33,000.

Description of the toys: 11 inches high, make "NICKI" white plush stuffed teddy bears. Each toy has a red plastic stethoscope around its neck. There are 12 toys per carton and there were 608 cartons in the container.

The total value of this theft is $66,000.

Crime Stoppers is asking for anyone with any information on this theft to call. Did you see this tractor being moved on the dates in question?

Do you know anyone who is selling these toys? If so, you can call Crime Stoppers. You'll never have to give your name or go to court. The Crime Stoppers toll free number is 1-800-668-5151.

driver, a 25-year-old Meadowvale man and his passenger also 25, were taken to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital and treated for major injuries. The two have since been released, hospital officials say. A Dec. 11 court date has been scheduled in connection with the incident.

Hydro commission members honored

Three Halton Hills hydro representatives picked up long-standing service awards at a ceremony in Markham last Thursday.

Halton Hills Hydro Electric Commission General Manager Jerry Trudell received an award for 25 years of service from the Municipal Electrical Association. The MEA also awarded Georgetown hydro electric commission representative Bill Smith for 20 years of service. Esquing hydro commission representative Murt Allison received an award for 10 years of service.

The Halton Hills Hydro Electric Commission is one of 317 commissions across Ontario with membership in the MEA. The association held its southern Ontario awards evening at the Chimo Hotel in Markham last week.

RECYCLING.

It only works if we all do our part!

Please Remember to Recycle This Newspaper

"ATTENTION" Bird Lovers Sunflower

- Seeds
- Stripes
- Blacks

Discounts on large quantities.

Lyonsdale Farms

838-3550 or

838-2689

8 Km. North of Hwy No. 7 on Mississauga Rd. Cheltenham Watch for Signs!

Christmas bazaar

The Georgetown Parent-Child Centre will hold its Christmas Bazaar Saturday Nov. 4 at St. Andrew's United Church. The location is 89 Mountainview Road South and the bazaar's hours are from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

There will be children's craft kits, tupperware, wood crafts, knitting, raffle table and clown and cheek painting for the kids.

Quit smoking

The Lung Association of Halton Region invites smokers to quit - Cold Turkey - with the help of their clinic.

The annual cold turkey smoking cessation program will take place at the Oakville Trafalgar Hospital Nov. 6 - 10 in lecture room "D" from 7:30 - 9:30 p.m.

The program cost is $10 with the remainder sponsored by Christmas Seals.

For more information, or to register call the Lung Association - Halton Region at 632-8499.

$3,000 stolen

Someone stole $3,000 from Bracken's Restaurant Lounge on Mountainview Road in Georgetown after smashing the front door window of the tavern, overnight Oct. 29. Halton Regional Police say there are no suspects. An investigation is ongoing.

Tapes, videos stolen

Halton Regional Police say someone smashed the southwest window of the Hornby General Store on the Seventh Line and Steeles Avenue and stole about $3,200 worth of food, video tapes, video tape players, cartons of cigarettes and adult magazines, overnight Oct. 28. There was also some property damage done to the inside of the store, police say. An investigation is ongoing.

Pellet strikes boy

Halton Regional Police say someone shot a pellet at a 13-year-old Georgetown boy, striking the youth's shoulder at the corner of Guelph Street and Normandy Boulevard in Georgetown, Saturday afternoon. The boy was uninjured. Police say the culprit was in an older model blue car that was travelling eastbound on Guelph Street when the incident occurred.

Bus stolen

Police say someone stole a locked school bus parked outside a Queen Street residence in Georgetown and smashed its sideview mirrors, the front windshield, and scraped and dented the side causing $3,000 damage overnight Oct. 26. The bus was found by its driver early the next morning on Sarah Street in Georgetown. Police say the keys were in the ignition when the vehicle was stolen.

$50 damage

Someone stole six fire extinguishers from six school buses parked at a Guelph Street parking lot in Acton and discharged one extinguishers causing $50 damage to a bus sometime between Oct. 27 and Oct. 28. Police say the stolen fire extinguishers are valued at $300.

VITEX

1-(519)-855-4795

****

SPECIAL!
BEST PERFORMER 8088-10

640 K RAM, 1 Floppy, 40 MB HD
Philips Monitor

$1075.00

Call Bill Fournier at Vitex
Specializing in affordable PCs
Software and Peripherals for home and small business use.

$100 damage

Police say someone sprayed graffiti on the back wall of the Bank of Nova Scotia on Mountainview Road in Georgetown, causing $100 damage late Thursday night.

Truck scratched

Someone caused $250 damage to a pick-up truck parked on Greystone Crescent in Georgetown after using a sharp object to scratch the vehicle's left front fender and hood overnight Oct. 26.

Wall spray painted

Police say someone spray painted the rear wall of St. George's Anglican Church on Guelph Street in Georgetown with an anti-Georgetown District High School slogan causing $200 damage overnight Oct. 25.

Impaired charges

Police laid charges of impaired driving after observing a 32-year-old Acton woman in a vehicle parked in the area of Holmesway Place in Acton late Saturday afternoon. A Nov. 22 court date has been scheduled in connection with the incident.

Man charged

Charges of impaired driving were laid after police stopped a vehicle moving erratically by a 31-year-old Georgetown man on Highway 7 at Churchill Road in Acton late Saturday night, police say. The man is scheduled to appear in court Dec. 11 in connection with the incident.

Police Beat

Car phone stolen

Police say someone stole a $400 car phone from an unlocked 1988 Chrysler parked on Cedarvale Crescent overnight Oct. 28.

Car flipped

Police laid charges of careless driving after a 1986 Volkswagen went out of control on Sideroad 15 east of the Fifth Line in Halton Hills last Monday evening. The driver, a 22-year-old Brampton man, lost control of the vehicle while attempting to negotiate a curve eastbound on Sideroad 15. The car skidded off the roadway, flipping over onto the roof and landed in a ditch.

Two-car collision

Charges of following too closely were laid after a two-car collision at Steeles Avenue and Trafalgar Road in Halton Hills Thursday afternoon. Police say a 1984 Ford driven by a 30-year-old Georgetown man was stopped at the intersection traffic lights when a 1980 International truck, travelling eastbound, hit the Ford from behind. A 62-year-old Warren, Ontario man was driving the transport truck.

Honda demolished

A 1987 Honda was demolished after it went out of control on Winston Churchill Boulevard north of Steeles Avenue in Halton Hills and entered a ditch hitting a culvert. A 31-year-old Mississauga man was driving the Honda when the accident occurred. Police laid charges of not wearing a seatbelt in connection with the incident.

Learn to Drive... and Survive

WITH Young Drivers of Canada

NEXT CLASS TO START
WED., NOV. 8th

Wed. & Thurs. Evenings
7:00 - 10:08 for 4 Weeks

16 Mountainview Rd. S., Georgetown

FOR BRAMPTON OR BRAMALEA
CALL 459-0417

YOUNG DRIVERS PROGRAM IS NOT AVAILABLE
THROUGH ANY LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

877-0751

OVER 300,000 GRADUATES RECOMMEND

YOUNG DRIVERS OF CANADA

The Royal Canadian Legion

Lt. Col. G.B.S. Cousins Branch No. 120
127 Mill Street
Georgetown, Ontario, L7G 2C7

Remembrance Day Parades
Saturday, November 11th, 1989

Georgetown and Glen Williams

Georgetown, fall-in at the Branch at 10:00 a.m. March-off at 10:30 along Market St. to Church St. - east on Church to Main St. north on Main to James St. - west on James to Charles St. and Cenotaph. Return via Mill St. to Legion and dismissal.

Glen Williams, assemble at the school at 2:30 p.m. March to the Memorial for service at 3:00 p.m.

The Royal Canadian Legion, invites all citizens and interested groups to participate on this Day of Remembrance.

"LEST WE FORGET"

Parade Marshal
Ernie Peasey, Branch 120
877-2645