Rebel gridder in playoff tilt

Georgetown District High School Rebels junior football team swings into playoff action today (Wednesday) as they host T.A. Blakelock High School, of Oakville, at GDHS field.

In their final Halton league encounter last Wednesday (Oct. 25) the Rebels edged Burlington Central High School 14-12, in a game played in Burlington.

The Rebels enter playoff action sporting a 3-2-1 regular season record. All eight teams in the Halton Junior Football League qualify for playoffs.

Against Burlington Central, Adam Hagan and Jeff Deleury scored touchdowns with David Lawrence, on a two-point conversion pass from quarterback Richard Mulgrew, rounding out the Georgetown scoring.

Century 21 split a pair

By DAVE BEAVAN
Herald Special
Orangeville 7
Georgetown 5

Thursday, Century 21 Minor Atoms hosted a tough squad from Orangeville and lost a heart-breaker 7-5.

Brad Kouyoumjian might have had a feeling this would be a great night for him when his shot from the slot found the net after only 29 seconds. Steven Smith assisted on the play.

Just 12 seconds later our other Brad (Davidson) scored on a hard shot from the blueline unassisted. This lead was short-lived however, as Orangeville scored two of their own within the next two minutes to tie the game.

Georgetown regained the lead with only a minute left in the first period when Kouyoumjian tapped in his own rebound, with assists going to Davidson and Shane Thompson.

Orangeville turned up the heat again to start the second frame with two quick goals but Kouyoumjian wasn't finished yet.

Wesley Blight set up Davidson in the slot and the opposition net-minder made a sprawling save. The puck ended up sitting in front of a wide open net with Kouyoumjian the only player within six feet. A quick flick of the wrist and Brad had his hat-trick.

After Orangeville again took a one-goal lead coach Brian James sent the two Brads out and the move paid off immediately. Davidson fired a long pass up the middle and sent Kouyoumjian in alone from the red line. Brad picked the top right corner for his fourth goal which is probably more than some Toronto Maple Leafs will score all year.

Unfortunately, Orangeville were not intimidated by Brad's heroics and they closed out the scoring with two more goals for the victory.

Friday night Century 21 Minor Atoms travelled to Oakville to meet a squad they had tied at the beginning of the month. With Georgetown's improved play of late a win was to be expected.

Oakville had other ideas as they opened the scoring late in the third period. Just 15 seconds later Georgetown got a big break. Brad Kouyoumjian's shot from the left side was deflected in by an Oakville defender and the game was tied at one.

Georgetown took a 2-1 lead late in the second period when Michael Crawford set up Curtis Hoogendam for a backhand shot. The net-minder made the save but Allan Rasmussen banged in the rebound.

Georgetown took a 3-1 lead to open the last period when Hoogendam cashed in Sam Butt's rebound. Rasmussen also assisted.

With four minutes left in the game Georgetown regained their two goal lead on a beautiful play. Wesley Blight passed to Brad Kouyoumjian behind the net. Brad waited for the defenceman to come to him and then hit Davidson in front of the net. Old reliable No. 4 one-timed it into the short side.

Oakville refused to quit and scored two goals in the last two minutes but sandwiched in between was a goal by Davidson who just never quits. Brad took the faceoff deep in the Orangeville end and pushed the puck past the opposing centre.

Before the defence could react he fired a bullet into the top left corner and this goal proved to be the winner (5-4).
