

Racquet club

Numerous activities

By LARRY SCOTT
Herald Special

Another busy week at the Georgetown Racquet Club.

The Men's house league continued with Team III consisting of Ken Thorn, Graham Brown, Jamie Kelman, Barry Butwell and Jim Hall, the leaders after the evening matches.

There were three special Halloween pumpkin winners. Larry Sissett, John Jones and Bryan Reynolds in winning their matches were each able to take home a pumpkin - much to the delight of their children I am certain.

All three interclub teams won their matches by identical 3-2 scores.

The ladies C team at home to the Adelaide Club had strong 3-0 wins from Chris Kogon, Audrey Jans and Jan Cook. Sandy Lewis lost a close match in the fifth game. Marg Hertz lost her match.

Keith Smith, playing in the top position for the D team easily won his second interclub match in a row, 3-0. Jim Morwick came alive after his first game and sailed to a 3-1 win.

Bill Voisin, after losing in the fifth game last week won in the fifth game this week.

Dean Miller and Doug Farrugan did not fare as well against their opponents from the International Club.

The men's B team went against Curzon's Sports Club of Etobicoke and our top player this week, Laurie Kemp, won 3-0 in a strong showing. Wayne Rakkala in the number two spot lost 1-3.

Paul Strandberg defeated a former Georgetown team player, Jim Dieroff 3-0. Al Kogon not yet in top form lost 3-0. It must be stated here that John Walker won his match 3-0 but by default. A win is a win.

The Toss Up tournament was instituted this year to allow players of all levels of play to mix both off and on the court early in the squash season and we are now into the second round of play.

In this tournament the player who wins a coin toss after a match has been played is the one who advances and the other player enters the consolation draw. This is definitely a low key type of tournament.

There are 47 competitors taking their chances.

The finals will be on Nov. 10 and the lounge will turn into an old English pub for the occasion.

And finally remember the second commandment of squash... thou shalt hit the ball, deep.

Junior Redmen end loop play

Acton High's junior Redmen volleyball team ended their regular season on a losing note Oct. 23 against their arch-rivals E.C. Drury.

Hosting the Milton team in the last match of the regular season, the Redmen lost the opener 15-10 but jumped back to claim the second match 15-6. In the third and deciding match, the Redmen could not put it together and were trounced by their guests 15-3.

The Redmen will now meet Georgetown in the first round of playoffs to be played in Georgetown Wednesday (today).

Coaches Ken Ellis and Dave Thorpe were proud of the team's efforts this year. Their enthusiasm and skill seemed to grow stronger throughout the day in tournaments, but they couldn't put consistent efforts together in regular season games.

The Redmen captured a gold and silver medal in two tournaments and finished in the semi-finals in two others.

Their regular season record in the tough Halton East Division was five and four. Said Ellis, "It's unfortunate that we had a letdown early in the season against both Georgetown and Reding. We might have finished higher in the standings. In regular play we took the first game from each of these two teams, but could not hang on for the second and third games."

Ellis singled out Brad Thorpe and team captain Bill Andrews as having had particular impact on the team's success this year.

He also paid tribute to senior student David Thorpe, his assistant coach. "Without Dave's involvement, I'm not sure the boys would have risen to such high levels this year. I really appreciate his skills and attitude."

Bodanis Bruins weather storm

The Georgetown Major Peeewe "AA" Bodanis Bruins completed a difficult and somewhat successful week.

A woeful start against Milton on Tuesday night saw the Bodanis Bruins fall behind their visitors 3-0 after two periods.

The score flattered the Georgetown squad and could be attributed only to the excellent goaltending of Chad Hughes.

Early in the third period Jim Katsilieris took a Stephen Onoprijenko pass and opened the scoring for the Major Peeewe. Katsilieris then won a faceoff in the Milton end and scored an unassisted goal.

With two minutes left in the game, Milton made the score 4-2 with a breakaway goal. The Bodanis Bruins didn't quit and Stephen Yurichuk fed Katsilieris who completed his hat trick to draw the score to 4-3. Milton scored an empty net goal as the final score read 5-3.

Georgetown hosted a strong Stoney Creek side at Alcott Arena on Saturday and in a well played game, marred only by a brawl, earned a 4-4 draw.

Doug Sheppard on a determined solo effort opened the scoring for the Bodanis Bruins. A fine passing play from Jamie Stephenson to Onoprijenko to triggerman Katsilieris upped the score to 2-0 for the Major Peeewe.

Late in the second period, with the score 2-1, Duane Erler fired a shot past the Stoney Creek goalie on the end of another three-way passing play with wingers Stephenson and Duke Bouskill. Stoney Creek tied the score at three, and with 6:05 left in the game, Erler passed to Gavin Glaser who fed the puck to Mark

Aldridge behind the net, where he moved alertly to the front of the goal to tuck in the go-ahead score.

Stoney Creek evened the score 4-4 with a little more than three minutes left in the game. John Waller was outstanding in the Bodanis Bruins net as the home side was outshot, but not outplayed.

On Sunday, only seven skaters suited up to face host Chinguacousy. The Georgetown side was short five players serving suspensions as a result of the Saturday game antics.

Erler opened the scoring off a goalmouth scramble, on a goal assisted by Onoprijenko and Aldridge. By the end of the second period the tiring Bodanis Bruins trailed 2-1.

With Chad Hughes playing brilliantly in the Major Peeewe goal, they were only behind by a score of 3-1 entering the last minute of the game.

With 38 seconds remaining, Sheppard scored from Brent Wilkinson and Aldridge. Eleven seconds later Aldridge knotted the score 3-3 when he again rounded the net to stuff in the puck after taking a pass from Erler. Hats off to a tired, but determined Bodanis Bruins squad.
