

Rebel spikers turned back

By COLIN GIBSON
Herald Sports Editor

Georgetown District High School Rebels senior boys volleyball team tumbled to the valley when they could have reached the heights in an invitational exhibition volleyball tournament staged Saturday, at Applewood Heights High School in Mississauga.

The previous Wednesday (Oct. 25) the Rebels had clinched first place in the Halton League's Eastern Division standings by virtue of a best two-out-of-three match win over T.A. Blakelock High School of Oakville, in a

Rebel girls in playoffs

Georgetown District High School Rebels senior girls basketball team tuned up for the oncoming Halton league playoffs, by capturing top honors in the King City Senior Girls Basketball Tournament, on the weekend.

In their opening game, the Rebels throttled Thornlea 48-9 with Kelly Cotton and Melissa Corson each scoring eight points to lead the Georgetown charge.

Humberview was topped 38-19 by Georgetown with Heather Lawrence scoring nine points and Jenny Ryan and Carolyn Stewart each hooping four points.

In their toughest match of the tournament, the Rebels squeaked past King City 34-33 to claim tournament laurels.

In the championship game, Heather Lawrence led the Rebel attack with nine points, while Carolyn Stewart and Cindy Kallu each chipped in with eight points.

The GDHS senior Rebels girls basketball team finished in second place in the Halton league's Eastern Division, behind White Oaks High School, of Oakville and thus gained a bye through quarter-final play.

Georgetown-hosted affair.

The Invitational Tournament in Applewood was to have been testing time for the Rebels leading into play for top provincial honors.

Applewood is ranked Number One in the province and the Number Two ranked high school squad Stratford was scheduled to attend, along with a highly-regarded high school entry from Eden, New York.

Stratford was unable to attend the tourney, so the round-robin, single-knockout format featured the Rebs going against Applewood and the entry from south-of-the-border.

With Halton playoffs in the offing and provincial honors beckoning in the not-too-distant future, the GDHS strikers could have served warning that they would be a force to be reckoned with - Georgetown is currently ranked in the top five, provincially.

Instead, the Rebels had a disappointing outing and according to head coach Bob McKay, "The players were embarrassed by their showing."

The Rebels lost their first best-of-three match to Applewood by scores of 15-9, 15-11, 15-11 and 15-7.

In a do-or-die second match against Eden, the Rebels were ousted from further tournament play by scores of 13-15, 15-4, 15-2 and 15-12.

According to coach McKay, "The guys just didn't play up to their capabilities."

Poor serves, sloppy setting and inaccurate passing plagued the Rebs throughout the tournament.

While disappointed in his charges' showing, McKay felt a valuable lesson was learned.

"We came up flat," he noted. "We know what we have to work on, and the players realize they didn't play up to par."

Halton league playoffs, for the Rebels start this Monday, with Georgetown hosting Burlington Central.

A match win would move the GDHS squad into semifinal play Thursday (Nov. 9) against an as yet to be determined opponent. The semifinal match would be played in Georgetown.

Major Bantams up and down

M and M Pro Sports Major Bantams split their weekend games with a big win away and a surprise loss at home.

On Saturday, the locals travelled to Ching to take on a team that had only lost one game all year.

Midway through the first period Georgetown found themselves down 1-0 but an unassisted goal by Shawn Pearson tied it up in the dying minutes of the first.

The second period belonged to Georgetown as Chris Barrow opened it up at 13:29 scoring on a three-way passing play from Jake Mashinter and Pearson.

Four minutes later Steve Wright popped one in with Barrow picking up his second point of the night on the assist. Ching got a goal while Georgetown was shorthanded but M and M got it back less than a minute later when Brent Couling scored with assists to Mashinter and Dustin Thompson. Jake Mashinter picked up his third point of the night when he converted a hard point shot from Matt Downs to salt the game away.

Ching scored one more goal late in the period but it proved too little too late as Georgetown gave them their second loss of the season, 5-3.

"We played a very tough team tonight," said coach John Wright, "and proved we were up to the challenge. We didn't give them an inch and our goaltending had them talking to themselves. Thomas Spencer was solid in net for us tonight and was a big factor in the win."

Sunday saw the locals host Streetsville and come out on the short end of a 4-3 game.

Streetsville opened the scoring with 11 seconds left in the first period. Then Georgetown's Steve Wright tied it up at 10:22 of the second, assists to Jake Mashinter and Brent Couling.

The visitors scored two more in the second and it wasn't until 11:58 of the third that Georgetown got on the scoreboard again when Chris Barrow scored from Wright's pass in front of the net.

Streetsville stretched their lead 15 seconds later on a powerplay goal. Then Georgetown's Matt Downs scored the final goal of the game from a behind the net passing play from Shawn Curry and Shaun Pearson. "This is the fifth game we've lost by one goal," said coach Wright. "We've got to keep our concentration if we expect to win these kinds of games."

M and M Pro Sports Major Bantams' next home game is Nov. 10, 9 p.m. at Alcott.

Saturday afternoon at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, by disposing of Stoney Creek "B" to the tune of 5-2.

Sunny Acres led 1-0 after the first frame with Stoney Creek knotting the contest 1-1 early in second stanza.

The Stoney Creek goal served to spark some life into the Georgetown squad as two more local goals allowed Sunny Acres to move in front 3-1 after two periods.

As has been the case for the majority of the Sunny Acres triumphs, the scoring was spread throughout the team roster.

Rich Bond, Rob Boyle and Brad Tutt each scored single markers and added assists.

Mark Lorito and Mitch Butt collected the other Georgetown goals.

Assists were garnered by Brad Amato, Gord Burke, Mark McIntyre, Sean Guistini and Rob Lang.

The Sunny Acres squad has two games on tap this week. Thursday, Georgetown travels to Burlington for a 9:30 p.m. game, while on Sunday the locals visit Brampton for a 5:15 p.m. scheduled contest.

Sunny Acres Farms next home encounter is Nov. 12, 4 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena when the hometown favorites face off against Streetsville.
