Courtesy, in all forms, a must in darts

Last week I began with reference to the markers expected courtesy and the problem resulting from a player's incorrect count and the errant marker. Just to follow up on courtesies for a line or two begins this week also.

Fellow players should also give their opponent every chance to throw in peace - not moving, fidgeting, coughing, making noise in general or standing in front of the throw mark. Basically, movement and noise are unfair and immoral tactics.

MONDAY HALTON LEAGUE
Linda Nicholson took the top individual effort with a high score of 162 in the home match McGibbon II vs Station House. Nicholson also figured in a team points win with Monica Southon, Sheila Hicks and Carol Cabral. The girls went into a short lived lead in the singles with Hicks and Mary Lou Vandevorst. Larry Melton and Greg Thoms were the unfortunate House players.

The girls managed to split the doubles for the remaining points, totalling five and the House ended up with nine and the win.

Meanwhile, McGibbon I visited Time Out II and the hosts quickly went down by 4-10, their only points coming in singles. Paul Kirby was top man with a high finish of 120 and two 140s. Gary Roida is making his move with 140 and 135, Ian McDonald, John Colter and Rob Poyner each netting 140.

Time Out I visited O'Tooles I and came away with a 12-2 score sheet. Some excellent darts were thrown in the match. When it came to the crunch Time Out had the finishers. Dan Fraser, Alex Tough and Mark See scored 146 and BeauBeaumont netted 130. A well played match.

O'Tooles II and Copper Kettle B were involved in a close match in the Glen before O'Tooles came away with an 8-6 victory. The sets went first one way then the other although, in the end, the middle singles wins made the difference. Ron Duval, Gary Spiller, Paul Mousseau each scored 140 and Stan Mathews scored 134 with Kim Frank netting 132.

In the remaining match, Kaspers dropped a home result 5-9 to Copper Kettle A. Ken Baker and Frank DeSantis scored 140 each and Terry Stray scored 134.

WEDNESDAY INDUSTRIAL DARTS
The league took a night off from league play for the first tourney of the season, mixed doubles. This year with a difference - the teams consisted of a player from each division, drawn at random.

Some good looking partnerships emerged and the group was divided into two sections with a knockout format and the last two doubles met in the finals for the overall championships. Losers in the first games went into the consolation round, again with knockout down to the finalists.

In the first section, Paul Kavanagh and Jim Charter came through the draw and the other tossed out Pete Pickering and Rob Poyner. The team of Charter and Kavanagh won the first set, then tied up by Pickering and Poyner. The third and deciding set went to Charter/Kavanagh prevailed to be declared the 1989/90 season champions.

In the consolation final Mike Finn and Jim Carter were drawn together and came through to meet Bruce Stevens and Ace Bailey where Finn/Carter pulled off a 201 win.

There were only a few scores and finishes recorded for posterity during the evening's play. Pete Pickering finished 112 fortuitously in one game and 140s were knocked by Pickering, Dennis Thorogood, Bruce Capreol, Jim Franks, Al Murphy and self. Beau Beaumont finished 99 and Thorogood 78.

Ron Scarlett and Dave Ball and Beau Beaumont were the losing semi-finalists in the main section with the Ron Voll/Bruce Rogers and Jim Nicholson/Cam Lavers were the consolation semifinalists. Hugh Smid opened with 120 and Jeff Richardson with 148.
