Norval UC

By KAY WILSON
Norval Correspondent

NORVAL-Unit 1 of Norval United Church met on Nov. 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the church for dessert lunch. Betty Johnson's group had charge of the evening and devotional with the theme "Remembrance Day." Selective Bible verses were read from Luke 8 and Romans 15 by Lois Reid, followed by the reading of "In Flanders Fields" by Nellie Shea. Lenore Laidlaw read an article from the Mandate on the Rev. and Mrs. Fetter, our minister's parents, who are missionaries in Brazil.

A work meeting then followed, to set up for the bazaar on the following Saturday, Nov. 11. The bazaar proved to be quite successful, and the Afghan was won by Stacey, daughter of Ken and Helen McCormack of Georgetown.

Turkey dinner

NORVAL-Norval Presbyterian Church held its annual turkey dinner on Nov. 10 at Huttonville Public School Hall. Around 400 people enjoyed the hot turkey dinner, and pie of every variety. Beautiful old time and new time dinner music was provided by Iva Davidson. Everyone's toe was tapping, as they were humming and singing along with the music, while eating - a big plus for the evening convened by Mrs. Bob (Karen) Carney.

Sympathy expressed

NORVAL-Sincere sympathy is extended to the husband and family of Mrs. Margaret (May) Copeland of Huttonville, who passed away on Nov. 13 at Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton. Beloved wife of Norman Copeland of Huttonville, and dear mother of Howard and Laura Copeland, of Priceville, Ont. Visitation at the Ward Funeral Home, Brampton, on Tuesday, Nov. 14, 7-9 p.m.; Wednesday, 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Funeral service from the chapel on Thursday, 1:30 p.m.

POWER meets

NORVAL-POWER members are sponsoring a dance on Nov. 24, 8 p.m. at the Acton Legion, with Marion's Country Orchestra, and lunch. For tickets phone 853-0039 or 877-2101.

General meeting

Norval W.I.

NORVAL-Norval WI met at the home of Marie Murray Nov. 2 at 8 p.m.

President Norine Van Leeuwen welcomed everyone and after the opening exercises proceeded with the business at hand.

Four of our members will attend District Day Sunday, Nov. 19 at Brookville Hall.

A good report was received from members who had attended Guelph Area Convention Oct. 26 and 27 at Maryhill Ontario. The banquet speaker Mrs. Harvey Woods was excellent on Thursday evening. Her topic was "Still Going Strong." The Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario (FWIO) 90th anniversary scholarship was presented to a WI member to help her complete her graduation in nursing, Margaret Munro, FWIO president, spoke about Change, Challenge and Communication. Membership should be measured in quality rather than quantity, be positive, believe in what you are doing, network and help each other. The world is changing and we have to change with it, she said.

There is to be a FWIO centennial fund to help get new projects off the ground.

The winner of the FWIO "Folklore" contest read her winning essay. Guelph Area Conventions ended with lunch on Friday, Oct. 27.

Norval's program tonight "International Affairs" was convened by Gisela Malchin and Lilo Dahmert. The roll call "Say a phrase in a foreign language" was answered by 15 members.

Norval WI announces its "Annual Christmas Party" at the home of Kay Wilson, Dec. 7 at 8 p.m. Come and bring an exchange gift to help Santa.
