Georgetown bowlers impress

Another year, another tournament and Georgetown bowlers again make an auspicious exhibition by capturing the most trophies.

At the Regional Finals in Guelph of the Master-Junior Championships, although not taking first place, the local team of Master Sandy Cuthbert and Juniors Chris Wilkes and Cindy Clarke laid claim to the second place awards while Master Gord Lane and Juniors Sharon Shapcott and David Leslie took the third place trophies.

In addition, in the individual achievement awards Robin Zander had the high, three game flat trophy with Tonya Morris taking the high single flat award. Not to be left out, Jeff Pringle took the high single pins-over-average trophy with a plus 77.

Placing so well in this tournament by so many, heralds great expectation for the Y.B.C. National team championships.

Curling Runners-up

THE CURLING TEAM of (from left) Ian Muir, Janet Dean, Terry Dowd and Dolores Houghton finished as runner-up in the opening season, Mixed

Duplicate Bridge

In Duplicate Bridge competition Monday at the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 120 in Georgetown, the team of Elsie Whittam and Mike Lorusso emerged as Number One winners.

Harry Arbie and Norma Maynard teamed up to capture the Number Two winner's spot, while the team of George Sargeant and Jack Kaarsemaker parlayed their knowledge of the game into the Number Three winners slot.

Located on Mill Street, the Georgetown Legion branch hosts Duplicate Bridge competition every Monday afternoon.

Egg Nog Jog

Dec. 17, the Credit Valley Conservation Authority and the Georgetown Track and Field Club will be hosting the Seventh Annual "Egg Nog Jog," an 11 km run for fun held in beautiful Terra Cotta.

"Everyone who enjoys the spirit of participation is invited to jog through this beautiful section of the Niagara Escarpment," says Robert Peace, Community Relations officer for the Authority.

"After the jog all participants are invited back to the chalet at the Terra Cotta Conservation Area to collect their times, prizes and enjoy free refreshments including the traditional Christmas Egg Nog," says Peace.

All proceeds will go to the United Way. Trophies will be awarded to the male and female runners with the best finish times. Door prizes will also be drawn after the race. Categories include men's open and women's open. This year the race will be professionally timed.

"Last year we had over 120 runners and this year we hope to double that amount for this good cause," says Peace.

Advanced registration is $8 and $10 the day of the race.

For more information or a registration form please call Robert Peace at 670-1615 or 1-800-668-5557.
