Senior Rebels bow out

The GDHS Rebels senior girls basketball team suffered a lapse in rebounding intensity and were eliminated from further Halton playoff action, 42-33 by Aldershot, in a game played last Thursday at Georgetown high school.

Rebels coach Moe Leeking was at a loss to explain the rebounding deficiency, as throughout regular season Halton league play, this aspect of the game was one of the team's strongpoints.

Aldershot led 24-16 at the half, but the Rebels narrowed the gap to 34-27 after three-quarters of play.

Carolyn Stewart led the Rebel gunners with 14 points. Sheril Cave chipped in with eight points.

Leeking praised the efforts of Hilary Weise, who came off the bench to lead the Rebels attack; Cindy Kallo, for a number of steals and Sherri Naim, who played extremely tough defence.

The hoop season is not quite over for the Rebels as the team will be journeying to Tucson, Arizona, Dec. 27, to take part in the Tucson International Open Tournament.

Twenty teams of senior high school calibre players (10 teams from the Tucson area and 10 teams from across Canada) will be competing in the week-long tournament.

The Rebels senior girls basketball team will be staging a bottle drive to raise funds for the trip.
